THE PAPER WITH THIRTEEN THOUSAND CIRCULATION

TWENTY-THIRD YEAR

LIMA, OHIO, FRIDAY, MAY 16, 1919.

PRICE THREE CENTS

These Men In Dash Across Sea

Three members of the crews of the N.C. seaplanes which are to attempt the ocean flight. Left to right: Lieut. Com. P. N. L. Bellinger, commanding officer of the N.C. 3; Lieut. Com. M. A. Mitscher, pilot of the same plane, and Lieut. L. T. Barin, second pilot.

LOAD TOO HEAVY PLANES RETURN

Fliers Make Experiment at Trepassey—Wait on Weather For Flight

TREPASSEY, N. F.—Another attempt to start the American transatlantic flight was to be made as soon as the N.C.-4 has been overhauled and weather conditions are improved, it was stated Friday at United States headquarters here.

The N.C.-1 and the N.C.-3 which traveled on the surface of the water from Trepassey to Mutton Harbor late Thursday, but failed to start their flights, were discharging excess paraphernalia Friday to lighten their loads. One man probably will be eliminated from each crew before another attempt to start is made.

The planes failed to hop off Thursday, because they were too heavy to rise from the harbor. While they were trying to get up the N.C.-4 came in sight, finishing its trip from Halifax. Thereupon Commander Towers decided to halt his efforts to get away, and make another try, with cargoes lightened after the N.C.-4 crew had had a chance to make necessary repairs and join the squadron.

(Erroneous reports that the transatlantic flight actually had started, were circulated in the United States Thursday. This announcement of the start, based merely on the tip of the planes on the surface of the water from Trepassey Bay to Mutton Harbor, the jumping off place, was not circulated by the United Press.)

When the N.C.-1 and N.C.-3 taxied away from their moorings in Trepassey Bay Thursday on the way to the starting place, the crews were heartily cheered by the men on the supply ships and by the fisher folk of the town of Trepassey.

EXPERIMENT JUMP

However, there was not much surprise when the two big planes taxied back to their berths sometime afterward, as those familiar with aviation knew the first attempt was largely in the nature of an experiment to see whether the planes could rise with their capacity loads. The weather reports had been discouraging all afternoon and Commander Towers was not greatly disappointed at the failure to get away.

The crews of all three planes were aboard their early Friday morning, carefully going over the big machines which were moored at their customary locations in Trepassey Bay. These berths are some distance from Mutton Harbor, the actual jumping off place. A start could not be made from Trepassey Bay because it is too small and congested with small boats.

The next time an attempt to start is made, it is understood Machinist Christensen, of the N.C.-1, and Lieutenant B. Rhodes, N.C.-3, reserve pilot engineer, will be left behind.

COOKS A LUXURY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Because Karrie Williams and Willie Mae Brown were good cooks, Judge Thomas R. Gordon refused to send them to jail. "Good cooks must be kept out of jail. They are a luxury," said Gordon.

FRUSTRATES THEFT

DELPHOS — In a running fight in which shots were fired police frustrated an attempt of whiskey thieves to make a getaway with four cases of liquor from a local saloon. An attempt was also made to enter one other saloon but the prowlers were frightened away.

NEW SCHOOL HEAD.

DELPHOS — Fred C. Snodgrass has been chosen to head the Delphos school for the following year. He succeeds A. J. Laudick, resigned to accept the editorship of the Delphos Herald.

DRY MACHINERY READY FOR WORK

Government's Policy to Enforce Prohibition After July 1 Is Announced

WASHINGTON — Formulation of the government's policy on enforcement of the July 1 prohibition act was practically finished Friday. The policy includes:

Use of internal revenue officers in reporting violations.

Collection of the manufacturers' liquor tax on all alcoholic beverages of more than .5 percent alcoholic contents, even the manufactured in violation of the law.

Justice department to begin action against brewers making 2 3/4 percent beer immediately after the handing down of the expected New York court decision.

Meanwhile justice department agents are collecting evidence of all violations of the act which prohibits beer manufacture after May 1, no matter what contents, according to the department's interpretation.

Nothing, it seems now, can prevent the United States from going home dry July 1, as far as alcoholic beverages is concerned, except a court decision declaring the law unconstitutional or repeal of the law by congress.

Brewers, who are continuing manufacture of beer containing 2 3/4 percent alcohol hope the New York federal court will over-rule Attorney General Palmer's contention that the act prohibits manufacture and sale of all beer and wines of no matter what alcoholic content.

The justice department has been notified the court's decision may be expected any day.

SOLDIERS ARRIVE

NEW YORK — The transport Plattsburg laden with 1,589 persons, most of them soldiers, reached port Friday from Brest.

Included in her burden were 1,357 men and 12 officers of the 322nd field artillery (83rd division, draft men from Pennsylvania and Ohio).

SWEET LETTERS PRODUCED

CHICAGO — Sweet and sticky letters were produced in the divorce case of Benjamin Mogri, pastry artist. Mogri said the toothsome notes indicated his disposition was sugary and blameless of wrong doing

This photo was taken recently on the occasion of a meeting of the German cabinet at Weimar, at which the German peace delegates received their instructions. From left to right: Secretary Rausher, Robert Schmidt, Dr. Scheidemann, Dr. Landsberg, Herr Missoll, Herr Bauer, Count Brockdorff-Rantzau, Dr. Gothein, Dr. Bell, Giesberts and Dr. Preuss. According to dispatches from Paris the delegates were given authority to sign the treaty.

TREATY FACES GRAVE PERILS

GERMANS BITTER AT PACT

TREATY WILL BE REJECTED, SAYS ENEMY MINISTER

Only Idiot Would Sign Such Peace, Asserts Socialist Leader

Great Crowd Stages Demonstration in Hamburg Against Terms

LONDON — An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin Friday reported that Foreign Minister Brockdorff-Rantzau, following a conference with the other German delegates, had announced he would not sign the treaty in its present form because the terms could not be fulfilled.

BERNE — "Only an idiot would sign such a peace," declared Herr Graf, majority socialist, in addressing a session of the Prussian assembly, a Berlin dispatch reported Friday.

Assemblyman Herget charged President Wilson with bad faith, while Assemblyman Merbold said the treaty is a travesty on Wilson's principles.

BASLE — A great crowd staged a demonstration against the peace terms in front of the Atlantic Hotel in Hamburg, headquarters of the American commission, according to a dispatch received from that city Friday.

Several orators protested against "assassination of the German people," an interpreter translated the speeches for the benefit of the Americans. There was no violence.

BERLIN — The Vorwaerts and Lokal Anzeiger urged Friday that a nation-wide referendum be held on signing of the peace treaty.

The Munich Post, the most important majority socialist paper in Bavaria, said:

"We neither can accept nor refuse. We must sign under protest, hoping the entente will come to its senses."

RETIRED FARMER DIES AT HIS WAPAKONETA HOME

WAPAKONETA — Charles Weitz, of this city, died Thursday at the age of 77. A native of Hessen, Darmstadt, Germany, he came to this country when a young man, and after a successful number of years as a farmer, retired to a residence in Wapakoneta. He is survived by his wife, a son, Fred Weitz, and a daughter, Mrs. George Knatz, residing in Washington township. Funeral services Saturday afternoon from the Evangelical Lutheran church.

CAN'T DODGE SODA TAX.

NEW YORK — You can't dodge the soda tax even by quaffing your beverage outside the drugstore doors, ruled the revenue collector when the soda fiends took to the sidewalks to save their pennies.

VICTORY BUTTON FOR ALL SOLDIERS

The Victory Button

Washington — The United States army victory button is now ready for distribution. It was designed by A. A. Weinman of New York city under the direction of the commission of fine arts. It is designed for use as a lapel button to be worn on civilian clothing, and one will be issued to each man upon discharge and to those who have already been discharged.

"Application for the button should be made to the nearest army station—either camp, post or recruiting office," says a war department statement. "The applicant should bring with him his discharge in order that proper notation may be made thereon. If application is made by mail, the discharge should be sent or a true copy thereof certified as such by any officer authorized to administer oaths. The button will be oxidized silver for all men who were wounded in action and bronze for all others."

CITY RELIEF BILL VETOED BY COX

Governor Refuses to Sign Measure For the Second Time

COLUMBUS — It was indicated Friday that the legislature would stay right on the job, when it meets on May 26, until the emergency city relief bill is a law.

This bill, which would allow near-bankrupt cities and school districts to raise the limits of the Smith one percent law to pay up deficits, was vetoed late Thursday for the second time by Governor Cox, who objects to the rupturing of the Smith law.

Cox claimed that one page of the bill was missing when it reached him and branded the legislature as "seemingly irresponsible" for sending down a bill in that condition.

Since part of the bill is missing, it is a question now whether the Republicans can pass it over the veto. Some hold that a new bill will have to be passed and submitted to Cox for his approval or disapproval.

GREEK FORCES LAND AT SMYRNA

Realize Dream of 500 Years in Occupying Coast of Asia Minor

ATHENS — (Thursday) — One of the greatest events in modern Grecian history occurred Wednesday when military and naval forces occupied a portion of the coast of Asia Minor. This was a realization of Greece's dreams of five centuries.

Permission for the occupation was given by the peace conference on request of Premier Venizelos, following official confirmation that the Turks were stirring up trouble in Asia Minor.

An entire division of Greek troops were landed at Smyrna and considerable territory on either side, including Ayvalik, 100 miles to the northward, and Voulas, 40 miles to the southward.

The troops ships, which sailed from Cavalla on Tuesday, were escorted by two battleships and four cruisers. One of the battleships was the Kilkis (formerly the American battleship Idaho, sold to Greece in 1914).

The landing was attended by considerable ceremony as Thursday was one of Greece's principal holidays, known as Roses Day. The occupied territory is populated almost wholly by Greeks.

A United States dispatch from Athens Thursday reported arrival of the dreadnaught Arizona and four American cruisers at Smyrna.

JURY IS SELECTED TO TRY WALTER O. BIGHAM

TIFFIN, Ohio — The jury to try Walter O. Bigham, accused of murdering his wife, was completed shortly before 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, after examination of 332 tallies.

It required nine days to complete the jury.

Just before the jury was sworn by Clerk of Courts Wetzel, Frank T. Dore, attorney for the defense, made a motion for a change of venue. Judge Duncan overruled the motion.

Friday morning the defendant, attorneys and jury went to Attica to view the site where the alleged crime was committed. Immediately upon their return, the taking of testimony will begin. The state has subpoenaed 77 witnesses.

JURY TO TRY FORD CASE IS FINALLY SELECTED

MT. CLEMENS, Mich. — Twelve men were in the jury box, approved by both sides in the case and the trial of Henry Ford's libel suit for $1,000,000 against the Chicago Tribune, was on at the morning session Friday.

After four days of vigorous questioning of jurors, the counsel of both sides late Thursday unexpectedly gave their approval to the 12 men that will decide the case.

DAUGHTER OF I. C. C. MEMBER MARRIED

Mrs. Layson Atkins. The marriage of Miss Helen Hazel Clark to Major Layson Atkins, engineer corps, U. S. A., took place at Washington recently. Mrs. Atkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Clark. Mr. Clark is a member of the interstate commerce commission.

THINKS TRAINING OF ALL IS VITAL

Chicago Congressman, Just Back From France, Talks On Army Needs

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Adoption of a scheme of universal training for preparedness is considered imperative by Representative Madden of Chicago, who recently returned from France.

Mr. Madden believes a comparatively small regular army will be sufficient in peace times, but he prefers that congress should take a few months to digest the experiences of the war before determining upon a permanent military policy.

"I talked with many officers and men of the army while in France," Mr. Madden said. "They asked me what we were going to do about the reorganization of the army. I told them I thought we should take sufficient time to think over what has happened in the war. Now we must get industry back to normal conditions."

"I am firmly convinced we should have universal training."

RELEASE OF STOCKS WILL NOT CUT FLOUR PRICES

MINNEAPOLIS — Release of additional stocks of government-owned wheat and importation of Canadian supply, will reduce flour prices only temporarily if at all, millers here said Thursday. They declared the government has not enough wheat to market to really affect the situation.

Patent flours have been selling at $12.40 and $12.50 a barrel. The United States Grain Corporation recently said $12 was a fair price for flour.

Millers, however, declared the wheat shortage is keeping up prices and look for no reduction.

TRAIN HITS AUTO; 3 KILLED.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio. — Three persons were killed here early Friday when a switch engine wrecked a string of cars into an automobile. The dead:

Mrs. George Winkel, Mrs. Henry Eckert and Ruth Eckert, one-year old.

BODY FOUND IN BAY

SANDUSKY, Ohio. — A body taken from the bay here Thursday, is believed to be that of a harness maker, named Gusselman, of Clyde.

The body, brought to the surface by a ferry propeller, apparently had been in the water several weeks.

CRITICISMS OF PACT COMING IN FROM ALL SIDES

Peace Threatened by Fighting Spirit of Various Nations, Says Paris Report

Fiume Only One of Knotty Problems Now Confronting Conferees

PARIS — Grave dangers are lurking beneath the surface of the peace settlement, in the opinion of persons in close touch with the general situation. This rests in the fact that everybody is too ready to fight. Against the theory that the European nations are too exhausted to fight further, it is pointed out that history shows all countries in the past have been more warlike at the end of a long struggle than after an area of peace. After the Civil War, for instance, the United States defeated both France and Great Britain.

From Belgium—in fact from everywhere, have come criticisms of the peace treaty. And one of the knottiest problems of all—disposition of Fiume—is yet to be settled. The Italians are playing an entirely new game. Instead of pushing their claims, they apparently are co-operating to the utmost in other work. They have not shown any inclination to abandon their claims, but they are not pushing the subject. Considering the fact the Italian army is not demobilized, and that the Italians now occupy all the territory they are claiming, the question arises as to who would put the Italians out, providing they would go so far as to sign the peace treaties and then refuse to evacuate the territories they claim as rightfully theirs. Such a task eventually would probably fall to the already heavily burdened league of nations, it is believed.

Through American influence, it is believed an arrangement will be made whereby the Ukrainians and Poles will cease fighting. But this is only one of the numerous minor wars that are being waged in Europe.

Establishment of peace between Poles and Ukrainians would mean that General Haller's army recently transported from France to Poland thru Germany, would be available in helping to keep back the Bolsheviks. So this would merely be stopping one war to assist in carrying on another, and such a move could not be construed as a real step toward world peace.

HARRISON IS WED

Governor of Philippines, 48, Marries Girl of 18, In Chicago

CHICAGO — Francis Burton Harrison, 48, governor-general of the Philippines, and his third bride, Mrs. Elizabeth Wrenmore Harrison, 18, Berkeley, Calif., were in Chicago, Friday, preparatory to visiting the bridegroom's mother in Washington.

The marriage took place in a hotel here late Thursday, a few hours after word came of the divorce granted Mrs. Mabel Judson Harrison, in San Diego, Calif., former wife of the governor.

Parental objection to the girl's marriage was said by friends to have been withdrawn at the last moment. Neither the bride's mother or father was present, but each was represented by an intimate friend it was said.

CEMENT IS FAVORED

DELPHOS — County Commissioners will confer with the state highway association for a change of material to be used in the proposed improvements along the Lincoln highway from Delphos to Van Wert. A change from macadam to cement is favored.

TOOK $900 AS EVIDENCE.

NEW YORK — They looked like secret service agents, but when they left Nick Staete's room, after searching it for deserters, they took $900 as evidence and Nick called a cop.

ONLY LOG CABIN MUSEUM IN U. S.

Kansas Town Enjoys Distinction of Possessing House Built By Pioneers

LOUISBURG, Kan.—Louisburg enjoys the distinction of possessing the only log cabin museum in the entire United States.

Built by pioneers, the cabin has functioned as a community center and continues the object of many de-tours on the part of tourists in this section.

Not an ounce of metal is contained in the building's construction, which has since grown from one room 14x16 feet with a large veranda, to a spacious building containing two wings of much larger dimensions. Not a bolt or nail was used in the building, the logs being fitted at the corners with a "dove tail saddle."

The cost of the structure is as unique as any of the three rooms, crowded with antiques and curios, for it cost not a cent in money. School children furnished the rocks in the chimney and friends of Homer Williams one of the best known and highly honored citizens at that time, donated the contents.

These friends erected the "museum" in an effort to take Williams' chink to the log cabin days, that he might find solace for the loss of his beloved daughter, who was her father's idol. It was an answer to his expressed wish.

In one of the wing rooms is the cabin's historical register, containing many names, among them people from every state in the Union. Every available bit of space is occupied by relics. On the front lawn, in front of a cannon captured in the Spanish-American war stands a huge hummer, seven feet tall from the trunk of a tree. It contains a shelf for the pipe and tobacco of each veteran.

PUTNAM ORGANIZES FOR SALVATION ARMY DRIVE

OTTAWA.—The county chairman of the Salvation Army drive, F. H. Rossberger, helped to organize the drive.

For Colds, Catarrh or Influenza.

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you pale? Is your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Putlimed!

An old, reliable blood-maker and liver tonic made from wild roots and herbs, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body, cure your cold, and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alternative and tonic is wild cherry bark with santonin, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs; also Oregon grape root, blood root, stone root, Queen's root, all delicately combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbs extract in the "Discovery" aid in blood-making, and are good for sore throats. By improving the blood they are in throwing off an attack of influenza.

Catarrh should be treated, first, as a blood disease, with this alternative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Pierce's Catarrh Remedy. Send for trial size of Medical Discovery Tablets or Catarrh Tablets to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Resinol
clears away pimples

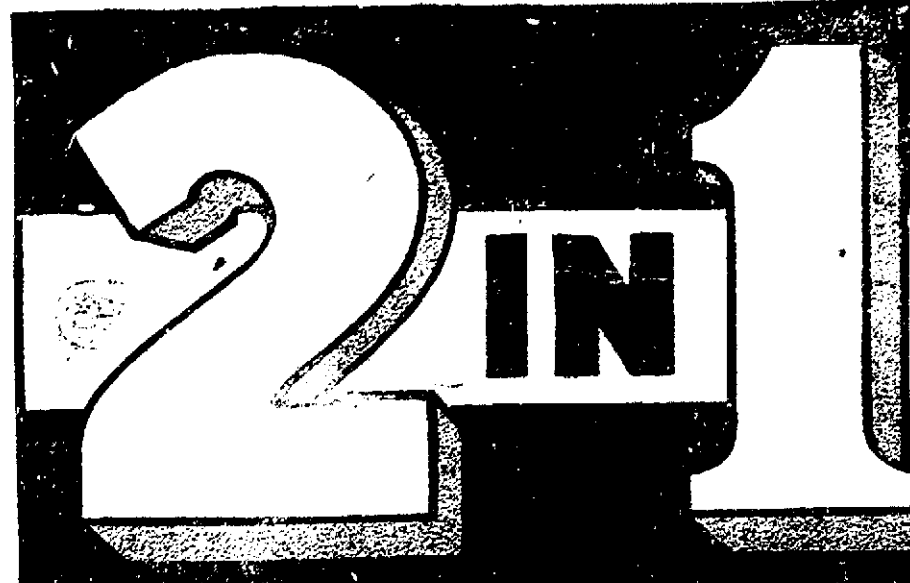

No one knows the humiliation of being a "wall flower" better than the girl with a red, rough, pimply complexion. If your skin is not fresh and smooth, or has suffered from an unwise use of cosmetics, try Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment for a week and see if they don't begin to make a blessed difference. They also help to make hands and arms soft and white, and to keep the hair live, glossy and free from dandruff.

Don't refuse that invitation because of a poor complexion

All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For free sample or to write to Dept. N. Resinol, Baltimore, Md. You'd better try them!

PIEPLANT WILL HELP BEAT H. C. L.

Rhubarb is Plentiful and Cheap And Can be Used in Many Ways

Hardly a family that doesn't use "pieplant" in the springtime. But mighty few use enough of it or realize it's a big money-saver for folk anxious to cut living expenses. Rhubarb is both a fruit and a vegetable; it's cheap and can be used freely in place of both, which are high.

Rhubarb contains the mineral, water, and ash valuable in vegetables, and has besides the acid which makes fruit so healthful. This product is selling in Lima now at very reasonable prices. It is abundant and will continue so. Recent rains have helped to keep it crisp. Other fruits remain sky-high, and the use of "pieplant" will help materially to cut the cost of living.

This product is not only good for pies. It can be made into sauces, preserves and even puddings. Now is the time to can it, too—while it is plentiful and cheap. For jams made with the more expensive fruits a third rhubarb can be used with good effect. It combines well with most fruits.

Here are tips on how to fix it:

TO CAN: Wash stalks, but do not peel. Pack into jars, cover with fresh cold water and allow the jars to stand for 10 minutes. Drain off water and again fill to overflowing with fresh cold water. Then seal, using sterilized rubbers and covers.

TO STEW: Wash and cut in one-half inch pieces. Pour boiling water over and let stand for 15 to 20 minutes. Drain off, then add just a little water, cook until tender, then add sugar to taste and cook a little longer. Stalks may be peeled if preferred.

FOR PIES: Wash and cut in one-half inch pieces without peeling; for every pint of rhubarb add three-fourths of a cup of sugar mixed with one teaspoonful flour and one well beaten egg. Bake between crusts.

FOR PUDDING: Wash and cut into one inch lengths (but do not peel) enough rhubarb to make four cups. Butter four or five slices of slightly stale bread and cut into cubes. Mix lightly with rhubarb and one cup sugar and bake in buttered baking dish for about 20 minutes, keeping pan covered first ten minutes.

FOR CONSERVE: Wash and cut sticks into one inch lengths. To each cup of rhubarb add three-fourths of a cup sugar, stir constantly and cook quickly to the consistency of jam. Add one-fourth of a cup chopped nuts to each cup of conserve and pour into hot glasses.

'BACKBONE OF BOLSHIEVISM' IN INDIANA, IS ARRESTED

HAMMOND, Ind.—Teresti Barbaruk, said to be an envoy of the Russian Bolsheviki government, was under arrest here Friday.

A department of justice officer arrested him after a hunt of four years. Barbaruk was said to have been the "backbone of Bolshevism" in Indiana. Agents said they found his credentials as "ambassador" and large amounts of Bolsheviki literature in his house.

SUES ON CONTRACT

C. M. Doty has filed suit in common pleas court seeking to recover the sum of $155.12 from Mose Steiner. This amount is due, the plaintiff claims, on a contract for which he has furnished work, labor and material.

BUT WHY BOOM EYE GLASSES?

Especially Horn-Rimmed Ones, But This is Case Under Tax

Lima merchants are calling the new luxury taxes "an act for abolition of union suits and encouragement of horn-rimmed spectacles."

In the case of underwear the tax is on each garment which costs more than $5.

A suit of two garments is not taxed tho the two pieces together may cost $10.

But if the two garments are combined in the single garment of the union suit there's a tax of 50 cents on the $10.

Spectacles with gold rims are classed as jewelry, and are taxed. But spectacles with horn rims are not classed as jewelry, and so are not taxed.

Technically the tax on jewelry is paid by the retailer, not the purchaser, but some jewelers add the tax to the selling price.

Corsets are a luxury to be taxed

WILSON THANKS RAILROAD MEN

President Cables His Appreciation for Expressions of Loyalty

WASHINGTON — President Wilson has cabled his thanks to the terminal convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen which is being held in Columbus, Ohio, for expressions of loyalty.

The president's cable, addressed to W. G. Lee, head of the brotherhood, reads:

"Please express to the trainmen assembled in convention my warm appreciation of the message you have sent me. It has done my heart good to make me feel the fine spirit of such friends in a way to make the work here easier for me. My warmest best wishes for the success of the convention.

Lee's cable, sent to the president, reads:

"Triennial convention Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen convened today. Will continue in session for two or three weeks, with approximately 1,000 delegates from all railroad terminals in United States and Canada. Had hoped it possible, President Wilson could address convention sometime during its session. Appreciating the importance of the work now being performed by him for humanity, will it not be possible to extend to him by cable the assurance of loyalty of more than 136,000 members of the Brotherhood who have been and are his loyal supporters."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the Garford employees for their kindness which was shown us during the sickness and death of our son Raymond. Also for the beautiful floral offerings and for the kind services of the visiting nurse Miss Miller.

Martha Halsema and family.

SCOUTS READY FOR BIG DRIVE

County Organizations Fast Lining up For Membership Campaign

H. E. Simonson, recently appointed chairman of the Boy Scout membership campaign for Allen county, made a tour of the district Thursday in company with Mack Altschul, and reports a most satisfactory state of affairs.

Groups of Boy Scouts have been organized in various sections of the county, and the movement is growing at an interesting rate.

In Spencerville one group has been fully organized, consisting of 32 boys, and another group started which will include the rural districts about the city.

Delphos, likewise, has a complete organization of one troop, and a second troop is forming within the city.

Not to be outdone, Bluffton has a thriving and active Boy Scout troop, which is fully organized.

"This is gratifying in the extreme," said Chairman Simonson, "as I did not know that the youth of the county were so well organized and interested in the movement. The Boy Scout organizations offer to the growing lads the opportunity of outdoor recreation and many disciplines and training which gives them confidence, courage and good health."

The Boy Scout investigation was included in Chairman Simonson's trip in the interest of the War Savings Stamp campaign.

"War Savings Stamps for 1915 are being subscribed to in elegant shape," he said. "The bank sales throughout the county exceed those recorded at the Post offices, and this is a good outlook."

ONE SALOON NOT WORRYING; IT WILL DEAL IN SMOKE

It will make little difference to the White Cafe when they are forced to abandon John Barlow as a business associate.

The promoters, Corwin and Steiner, announce that they will court the favor of Noble Martin, and install in their present location one of the finest cigar stores in the part of the country.

The interior is to be entirely fitted with mahogany and glass show cases and will have considerable of the metropolitan atmosphere about it.

The restaurant will continue to serve meals, but the entire front of the building will be a new one.

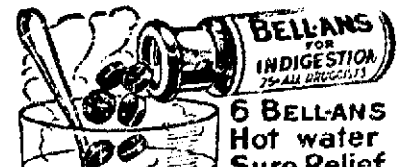

Cigars, pipes, bowls, tobacco etc., will take the place of the happy third that has but one more week to live.

The cafe will be closed for about a week, and will open up in its new regime about June first.

LOCAL BANKER LEARNS BROTHER DIES SUDDENLY

Word was received at noon Friday by T. O. Harris, cashier of the American Bank, that his brother, Eli Harris, had dropped dead at his home at Antwerp, Ohio. Death came in an attack of the heart. He had had poor health since an attack by the typhoid fever about two years ago.

Mr. Harris will leave this afternoon for Antwerp to attend the funeral services.

Attorneys Always on Time, Say
Appellate Court Judges

Exponents of the oral argument among the legal profession in Lima fail to hold up proceedings in the Court of Appeals, according to the judges of that court.

"One hour is granted each day for argument of his case," said Judge Becker. "And they are always on time too, since without failure to appear on time results in the loss of the case for attorneys."

Victory Garden Sites May Be Had For Asking

Are you going to turn farmer this summer?

If so your Victory Garden is ready according to Judge F. C. Becker, a member of the committee in charge of the disposal of lots under the plan of the Rotarian Club.

Several tracts of land have been plowed under and almost half of the lots are already parceled out.

"Considering the inclement weather, we have been particularly successful in the distribution of lots for summer gardening," said Becker today.

FIRST AIR MAIL

Consignment Leaves Lima To-day Over Fast Route

Have you sent your letter by airmail today?

The first consignment of airmail mail leaves Lima today for delivery to a waiting plane at Cleveland for dispatch to Chicago by air and points west, northwest and southwest of that city by train.

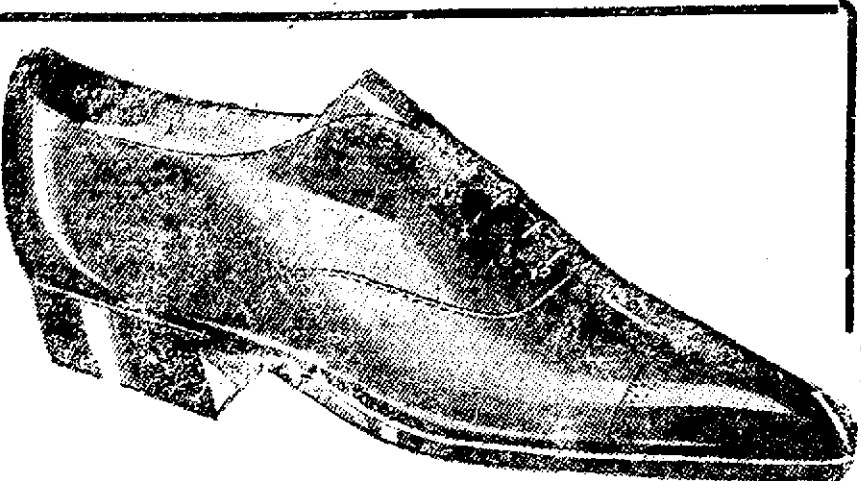

Special stamps are required for its dispatch at a rate of six cents per ounce. All mail to be marked in plain letters "Air Mail." Postmaster Sullivan announced today that the new routing will result in the saving of six hours on all mail from Chicago to New York and upwards of 18 hours in the delivery at Cleveland from west of Chicago. The new airmail operation between Cleveland and Chicago covering the distance in three hours.

When a Girl Marries

"We'll telephone right down to the little inn where Mrs. Harrison met Betty and Miss Moss," declared Anthony Norreys so briskly that I was saved from confessing how little I knew of Miss Moss's whereabouts.

"They'll be sure to have a forwarding address on their books. Do you remember the approximate date, Mrs. Harrison?"

I felt a tide of crimson sweep up to my face again.

"I do remember; and the exact date. We were on our honeymoon. It was last June," I cried, rejoicing that my "clue" was leading somewhere after all.

Anthony Norreys's blue eyes swept my face for a second, and they held so much of kindness and real understanding that the happiest of my honeymoon days seemed close to my heart again.

Then he went into action. Smoothly, quietly and with no fuss at all, he called our honeymoon inn, got the manager and secured the address of Miss Adeline Moss. And five minutes later we were driving in his limousine to that address. It was a nurses' home. I found plenty to puzzle over in that. Why had Betty needed a nurse last summer when she looked so well and beautiful? Furthermore, had it been pride alone that put little Miss Moss in regulation clothes instead of in a nurses' uniform?

My questions were answered quickly enough. At the home we were told that Miss Moss had gone down to the country with a patient. Her address was Greyfriars Hall.

"Greyfriars Hall? You mean the surgical hospital?" asked Anthony Norreys.

The matron of the home nodded eagerly. She was ready to talk of the wonderful reconstruction work they were doing at Greyfriars Hall, but she would say no word of Miss Moss and her patient. Nor were any of us anxious to stay and discuss matters. Since we could not here be assured that Miss Moss' patient was Betty, our whole desire was to be off at once and to follow this promising yet terrifying clue.

"Oh, Tony, Tony; what can Betty be doing at a surgical hospital?" Virginia gasped, as we rolled smoothly down the street.

"We'll see, my dear—we'll see," he murmured soothingly as to a child, but I felt that he was only giving Virginia a little detached corner of his attention.

"We're going straight down there on the chance that it is Betty, aren't we?" I asked.

"Oh, I think we might telephone first before we swoop down on your little 'poached egg' lady," replied Mr. Norreys thoughtfully.

"And each of you girls will want a warm coat and a few brushes and things, in case we can't get back tonight."

"I'll take enough for both of us," volunteered Virginia.

But I wanted to go home first, to leave a placating note for Jim, to see if any message had come—just to satisfy my own intuition that I'd feel better starting right from home.

Mr. Norreys seemed to understand my tangle of motives and desires almost without my explaining them. He had a way of understanding everything and of making one feel that he would excuse even if he didn't understand.

While Jim—it seems to me that I'm always having to explain myself and translate myself to my Jim.

But my desire to start from home justified itself when I pulled a letter out of the Harrison box and revealed the distinctive cadet-gray paper and flowing yet ragged black characters I had seen only once before but knew in a flash as Betty's.

"From Betty!" I gasped between smiles and tears, and there in the hallway I stood and read the letter to Virginia and Mr. Norreys.

"Little Princess!" It began—and from that my eye roamed to the right hand corner, where stood the time—Monday midnight. The night Betty had dined with Anthony Norreys and me. It seemed ages ago, yet this was only Thursday. It took only a second to react to that, and then I resumed my reading aloud.

"What a cosy, friendly evening we had—you and Tony and I. Three friends, and real friends, I'm happy to say. Maybe if they're very good, we'll introduce Jimmie and Terry to this inner circle of ours. But not right away. I'm going off on a wee trip. A sort of rest cure and penance for my sins. Just as soon as I'm settled I'll let you hear from me. Be good to Terry while I'm gone; and tell Terry I said he should big-brother my little Lilac Princess. And I want my Jimmie boy to remember always that she is a little Princess—and gentle and delicate."

"How I'm mooning along. That's because it's midnight, the witching hour; and I'm going away—and I love you. I do. So you might as well know it. Your Betty B."

"And it doesn't tell a thing," I moaned, as I finished reading—finished with moist eyes.

"When's it dated?" asked Virginia.

"Monday."

"And this is Thursday. So she's much further away than Greyfriars Hall—a three-hour motor run."

"But it's mailed here in the city," I said, puzzling over the strangeness of that. And posted today—this morning."

"Then I think we ought to drive right down to Greyfriars—don't you, Tony?" asked Virginia.

"I'm still in favor of telephoning first, Voc. But wait. Our little princess has an idea, I can see that. Did it come from the other letter—the one you're crooning over like a little mother?" asked Anthony Norreys.

I folded the little note I was almost unconsciously "crooning over" and looked up to answer Anthony Norreys.

New Merchandise — From A New Store

What a change has come over this part of the old world in the last few days!

A few weeks ago it was the flowing of sap from the maple; then the shooting of a bud; the unfolding to emit a seed—and today we look upon the finished product of green that means shade and color for the hot months to come.

Everything seems so new and fresh—in the store and out of the store.

New fashions, new conceptions, new materials, new colors—presented in a store where all is aglow with gay color and the charm of newness.

MAY 14, 1919.

Silk That Stands At A Very Low Price

Cheapness is not a virtue; but a pitfall for economy. In an effort to reach economy, we sometimes are beguiled into a taking a chance by patronizing "cheapness."

The Louisiana silk to which we refer is genuinely economical because there is great quality at a very low price.

Comes in black and white or blue and white checks and is especially adaptable for dresses. 36 inches wide. $1.50 per yard.

SECOND FLOOR

Grouping House and Porch Dresses At A Price Concession

Good news indeed for House cleaners! For a limited time only, we are having a special sale on a great group of Gingham House and Porch Dresses. Every garment is brandsplinter new.

Fashioned from fast color Ameskeag Gingham in quaint plaids and entrancing stripes. Among the style features are the wide belts—clever fancy pockets—trimming of white or contrasting materials. Straight lined or close fitting models.

Regularly $2.98 and $3.48.

Now $1.98 Each

BASEMENT

Along With House Cleaning Comes Thot of New Bed Coverings

And those splendid thoughts do not need to go unfilled for at Bluem's there are literally hundreds and hundreds of styles.

Announcing A Great Spring Drive For 5000 New Customers

By Far the Greatest and Most Important Sale in the History of Our Business Career

The Gregg Store is on the wave of a tremendous prosperity. Our business has grown during the past twelve months with a rapidity which has almost astounded us. This store has long since come to be known as the most popular store in Lima for practical people.

Inspired by this generous show of appreciation by thousands of customers of our ability to give unusual values we are frankly out to add 5,000 new customers to our ever increasing list. This will be done through this Great Spring Drive Offering.

EXTRAORDINARY VALUES THRU THE REMAINING WEEKS OF MAY--SAVING OF FROM 10 TO 50 PER CENT

The whole world is undergoing a period of readjustment, reconstruction and rebirth. This store has early caught the spirit of the times and has made tremendous preparations to attract new patrons.

Right now in the midst of active spring buying and at the threshold of summer, now when the country is still in the throes of high prices, with indications of even higher prices, we want to demonstrate to 5,000 new customers our ability to give values in high quality merchandise. Our tremendous increasing business has so reduced our selling expense that the difference between the cost and selling price has been reduced to a minimum.

Whether Gregg's is a favorite with you; whether you have for some reason or other stopped giving this store a share of your patronage; or whether you were never in Gregg's before—Come during this Great Spring Drive. Every section of the store will make it worth your while.

The Following Great Values Will Begin at 8:30 a. m. Tomorrow--SATURDAY

FIND PREHISTORIC SHOPS IN TEXAS

Village Sites Antedating Settling of Whites Are Located There

WASHINGTON.—In order to put Texas on the map, archeologically, by gathering evidences of the character of Indian life there, before the coming of the white man, the bureau of American ethnology has already inaugurated studies in that field which promise important results, it was announced today.

Notwithstanding its magnitude very little attention has been paid to the many evidences of an aboriginal population in Texas before the advent of white settlers. This is the more remarkable because the state is situated between the Pueblo and the Mound Builders area, two of the most interesting regions inhabited by prehistoric man.

Dr. J. Walter Fewkes, chief of the bureau, with the help of Professor Pearce of the University of Texas, has already located many prehistoric workshops and long-forgotten village sites, antedating French, Spanish or American settlers.

Many stone implements occur in these localities, some of which, made from flint, show remarkable skill in manufacture. The character of these implements indicate that the inhabitants of the middle of the state were hunters more or less nomadic, while eastern Texas, or that part lying in the timber belt, was inhabited by agricultural tribes possessing skill in pottery manufacture, a craft foreign to a hunting tribe. Indian life in this area, it is stated, must have been closely related to that of the ancient Mound Builders of Louisiana and Arkansas, but in the western part of Texas, which is an elevated, more or less arid plateau, the ancient inhabitants were quite unlike the rest of the state.

Tells Dyspeptics What To Eat

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bisurated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder, or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of persin pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

resembling the Pueblos of New Mexico.

Very little is known of the mode of life of the prehistoric Indians in these three areas, but the preliminary examination, it is said, indicates that much light may yet be shed on the migration and distribution of Texas Indians in an epoch hitherto unknown to students by a study of prehistoric remains scattered over the state.

The widespread belief that the ancient aborigines of Texas were practically the same as the fierce tribes encountered in modern times by the early white settlers is largely the result of want of knowledge of prehistoric remains, the bureau stated. In the opening years of the eighteenth century, Apaches, Comanches and other savage tribes roamed over Texas, following the buffalo or riding across it into Old Mexico. Some of these Texas tribes were reported to have been cannibals, it is stated. There seems to have been constant hostilities between these Indians, in which many smaller tribes were exterminated. The number and extent of workshops and village sites may be the sole surviving indication of some of these tribes (said the bureau, as they imply great antiquity and the objects from these sites differ from those in use by the historic Indians.

The surfaces of several of the flint implements are modified by long continued atmospheric or other agencies to such an extent that many years, possibly centuries, must have elapsed since they were left by those who manufactured them, it is believed.

COUPONS CASHED

Bond Holders Using Interest to Buy Stamps

Holders of bonds of the second Liberty loan are cashing in their coupons at the local postoffice and re-investing in War Savings Stamps. Interest on this loan is payable any time after May 15.

While the postoffice is not acting as a clearing house for the redemption of coupons all holders are urged by Postmaster Sullivan to convert the amount of interest into savings stamps. Ohio led the entire nation in the sale of these stamps last year and are still in advance at the present time, and purchase of them is recommended as a patriotic measure.

NEW EARS FOR THE GOD MARS

FOE OF THE TOBACCO USER

In a mining tunnel listening to enemy countermining operation

ARTIFICIAL ears developed during the great conflict are at once the most ingenious and most delicate contrivances imaginable. Their hearing is not only incomparably more acute than any man's, but it locates with accuracy the source from which a sound proceeds, its direction and its distance—a thing the human ear cannot do.

By such means in a single day, shortly before the signing of the armistice, more than 100 hidden German guns were located in one sector, placing them at the mercy of the allied artillery.

A survey of German gun positions made after the armistice was signed, on a part of the front where American listening devices were installed, proved that the actual positions varied not more than twenty to thirty feet from the locations calculated for them.

So extraordinarily sensitive are the instruments used that the operator, merely by picking up the sound of the guns, can determine their caliber. Apparatus of the kind located the "big Bertha" cannon of which there were several that fired upon Paris from a distance of seventy-two miles, thus enabling the French aviators to bomb them and destroy at least one. Another was blown up, and a third was put out of action in some way not definitely ascertained.

Each set of instruments covered a five-mile front, and the sounds they recorded were conveyed to them not through the air, but through the earth. In many instances the operator occupied a sort of telephone booth, listening through a pair of rubber tubes connected with two hearing-aids placed on the ground.

The apparatus chiefly employed is called a "geophone," and was used for many purposes other than locating German guns. Provided with this instrument, a man would take his station at the extreme subterranean end arrange matters so that when the enclosed "sap-head" or a mining tunnel and listen for enemy countermining operations. If any such were in progress, he could tell exactly where the digging was being done. He could distinguish the blows of a pick, the noise made by a spade, the sawing of timber for props, or the tamping of an explosive charge.

Listening with microphone to sounds coming through the ground

The problem then was merely to conv's sap-head had reached a certain point, with a bunch of Hunns busy digging, the whole business could be blown up, destroying the countermines and giving sudden and permanent burial to the excavators.

By this means German mining operations on the west front were interfered with to such an extent as to put a stop to them almost entirely. In work of the kind the "geophone"

Locating enemy guns with the "geophone" was importantly supplemented by a wholly different instrument, which was a long-distance microphone. It could be used for either underground or surface listening, and was of utmost value in the trenches.

Provided with one of these microphones, the observer, in a safe place a mile behind the front line, could hear what was going on in No Man's Land. If an enemy patrol was silently crawling across that dangerous territory, he could give warning. Small noises unheard in the trenches were audible to him.

Whereas the man with the "geophone" was obliged (for detection of enemy mining operations) to place himself in the sap-head, the microphone operator need not enter the tunnel at all. With the help of wires suitably strung, he might be a mile away and listen to what was going on in the neighborhood of half-a-dozen tunnels.

When we entered the war, the United States Bureau of Mines offered for the government's use its "experimental mine," twelve miles from Pittsburgh, which was already equipped with delicate instruments for listening through the earth—their object being to provide means whereby miners imprisoned as a result of explosion or other disaster might give notice of their whereabouts and of the fact that they were alive.

It was found that these instruments could be adapted for war purposes, and hence the development of the remarkable contrivances here described.

A DEADLY enemy of the smoker is the "cigarette beetle," an insect one-fourth of an inch long that has a passion for tobacco. It bores holes through cigarettes, converts the tobacco into dusty refuse and discolors the wrappers.

It is not less fond of cigars, often destroying the inside works thereof almost entirely without disturbing the outer coat of leaf. When the ultimate consumer has lighted such a "weed" he finds that it does not draw well and burns unevenly. The flavor leaves much to be desired, and dust is drawn into the mouth with every puff.

To make the matter worse, high-grade cigars, in which the more expensive leaf is used as wrapper or filler, are far more liable to attack by the beetle than brands made from heavier, stronger and inferior grades of tobacco.

With cigarettes it is the same way. The beetle is a connoisseur in tobaccos and prefers the sweeter, milder types of leaf, such as are used in the manufacture of the more expensive grades. Fine Turkish cigarettes are specially liable to attack, holes being bored even through the cork tips.

Most of the damage is done by the "worm," or larva, of the beetle, though the latter continues to be a tobacco eater through its adult life. Plug tobacco is by no means despised by the insect, which riddles it with galleries. The same thing happens to pressed and sliced smoking tobacco.

The quantity actually eaten by the "bug" is of far less importance than the injury done by the refuse it leaves behind, including the remains of dead beetles, excrement, etc., which render the manufactured product unsalable.

This highly objectionable insect is supposed to have been originally a native of the warm latitudes of America. It has been distributed by commerce to all parts of the world. In warm tobacco-producing countries, such as Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, where the beetles breed continuously throughout the year, they are being constantly exported in shipments of cigars and bales of cigar tobacco.

Within recent years there has been a noticeable increase and spread of the beetle in tobacco factories in the United States. It is attributed by manufacturers to the general use of steam for the heating of their plants, the higher and more uniform temperature thus maintained rendering conditions more favorable for breeding.

In warm weather generations of the beetles succeed each other very rapidly; thus hogsheads of export leaf, containing only a few of the insects when shipped, may become heavily infested en route and almost worthless after a long sea voyage, the high temperature and moisture in the hold of a vessel creating conditions ideal for reproduction.

Tobacco may also become infested in the hands of the retailer. The beetle is now so widely scattered throughout the country that it is often found in the storage rooms, showcases and humidor of cigar stores.

Much success is understood to have been obtained with a machine patented by a Philadelphia inventor, Franklin S. Smith, by which the beetles are destroyed (and their larvae and eggs as well) with the X-ray; boxes of cigars and cigarettes being carried by an endless belt through the apparatus, to be delivered in a sterilized condition at the further end. It is not necessary even to open the containers in order to accomplish the work.

Biggest of the Sapphires

A NEWS dispatch speaks of the loss of the "largest sapphire in the world" by Countess Barnicka, who was robbed of it on a train while escaping from Bolsheviks after the destruction of her house near Kiev.

The size of the gem is not mentioned. But probably it did not equal in this respect the sapphire two inches long which adorns the top of the German imperial crown and which (dating back to the tenth century) was presumably brought home as a piece of loot by pious crusaders.

The stone familiar to us as sapphire is blue corundum. Ruby is red corundum. Transparent crystals of green corundum are "Oriental emerald." If purple, they are "Oriental amethyst." — the ordinary amethyst being pink quartz crystal. If yellow, they are "Oriental topaz," or "yellow sapphire."

We are well acquainted with corundum as an abrasive. But transparent crystals of this same substance afford material for gems of high value, their different colors being due to metallic oxides.

Fine sapphires are more valuable than diamonds of equal weight and quality, only rubies being more precious. But ruby crystals (in the rough) are rarely more than half an inch long, whereas those of sapphire occasionally reach three inches. Most prized are the "velvet blue" sapphires and those of "cornflower" tint.

One of the most famous gems of this variety is the "wooden-spoon sapphire," which gets its name from the circumstance that it was picked up by a Ceylonese dealer in wooden spoons. A while ago it was in the Hops collection. It is violet by day but red by artificial light.

In 1882 there occurred in the Sinda Pass of the Himalayas a great landslide, which uncovered a wonderful sapphire-bearing deposit. From the latter have since been obtained many of the finest existing sapphires. Aside from this deposit, the most important source of fine gemstones of the kind is a district in Ceylon.

Our own country is far from conspicuous as a producer of gems. But the upper Missouri River has yielded from its gravel bars large numbers of small, bright and beautiful sapphires. They are not big enough or dark enough to fetch high prices.

Nevertheless, the finest green sapphire (Oriental emerald) in the world was found in Macon County, North Carolina, and at last accounts was a feature of the collection of a citizen of Philadelphia—Clarence S. Bement. It is a transparent nodule of crystal, remarkably pure and would yield in cutting a gem of thirty carats.

A yellow sapphire two inches long forms the apex of one of the Russian crowns, preserved until recently at the Kremlin, in Moscow.

Drug of White Mice Now That War Is Over

THE sudden ending of the war caused a panic in the mouse market. One large dealer, finding himself "long" 50,000 white mice, offered the whole lot for sale at half a cent apiece.

How cheap was this price may be judged from the fact that white mice a fortnight earlier were quoted at ten cents apiece in lots of 100 or more. White rats were then worth twenty-seven cents, but they dropped coincidentally to two cents.

The reason lay in the fact that the government, which had been buying millions of white mice and white rats for medical experiments, and for use in diagnosing war diseases at base hospitals, withdrew from the market.

Just now it is monkeys that are in demand for such employment, in connection with "flu" and the new "sleeping sickness." They are obtained mostly from India and the Philippines.

White mice and white rats are mainly farm products. Farmers' boys breed them and sell them to city dealers, whose agents go about in automobiles, collect them and ship them in boxes from the most convenient railroad station.

One constantly sees these dealers' advertisements in the newspapers, offering to sell or to buy the little rodents in quantities. Under normal conditions there is a very active market. A good many are sold by fanciers as pets, "selected pairs" fetching as much as a dollar.

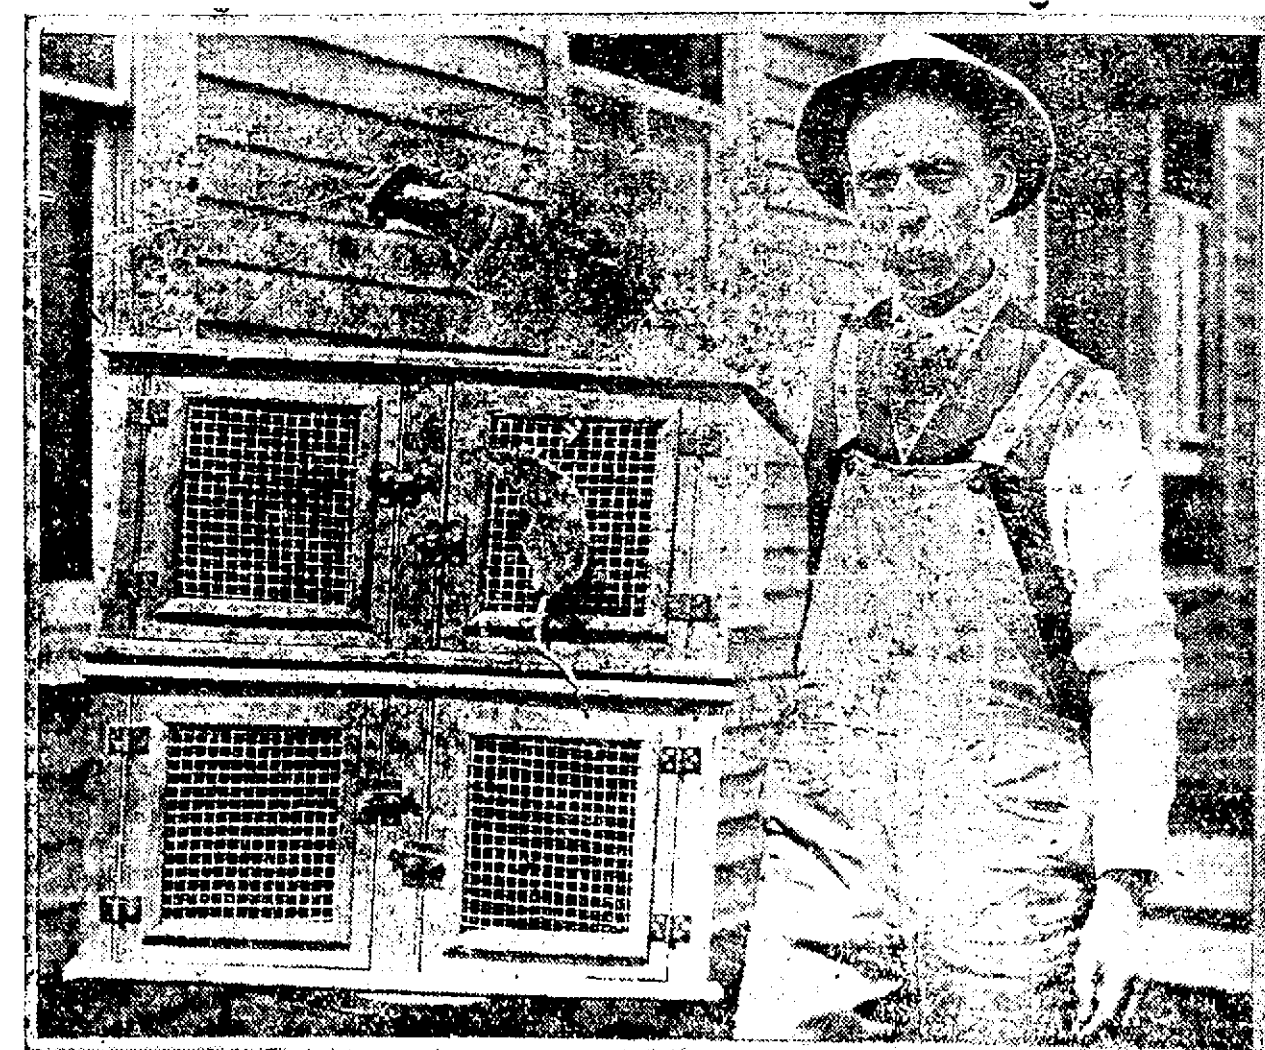

They are not bred in the cities for market. Dealers merely handle them as stock, like any other merchandise, keeping them in big boxes with wire-net fronts or tops.

White rats and white mice, of course, are typical albinos. They have been bred so long under domestication as to be quite tame.

This is one reason why hospitals and medical laboratories prefer them to the ordinary wild varieties; they are much easier to handle. Another reason is that they are less likely to be afflicted with diseases of their own.

Rabbits and guinea pigs are bred for the same market on farms, and are bought and handled in the same way, medical laboratories and hospitals requiring great numbers of them. They are fed by the dealers on oats, hay and whatever fresh vegetables may be cheapest.

The author of "Pigs Is Pigs" did not much exaggerate the reproductive powers of guinea pigs. Truly, they are not advocates of race suicide, and one pair might conceivably have seventy-five descendants in a year's time—an outside limit not likely to be attained. Rabbits are far more prolific, the mother bunny producing from eight to twelve young in each litter, whereas the lady guinea pig satisfies her maternal ambitions with five or six.

Government no longer requires them for medical research

Star Dust—Whence and Why?

IF THE hand of Omnipotence were to reach out and remove the sun from the sky, what would happen to the earth?

It is a question easily answered. The earth, would promptly succumb to the powerful attraction of Jupiter, and would become a moon of that huge planet, revolving about it. Jupiter is 210 times as big as the earth, and one of its four principal moons is actually larger than Mercury.

A theory now pretty well accepted by astronomers is that the toy worlds, called "asteroids"—of which more than 800 have been discovered, some of them not more than twenty miles in diameter—have been picked up by Jupiter out of the void of space and thus dragged into the solar system.

Jupiter in the same way catches a good many comets. The latter, since captured, swing around the sun for a while in elliptical orbits, but sooner or later break up or take flight to other heavenly regions. Nobody knows whence they come or whither they go; they do not seem to be governed by ordinary laws. Hence, and owing to the mystery of their make-up, a weird sort of interest attaches to them.

In November of each year the earth passes through a swarm of meteors, and in August it encounters another swarm—the happening in both cases being made manifest to the every-day observer by many "shooting stars."

It is thought likely that these meteoric swarms are the debris of smashed-up comets. In 1872 we had a very spectacular "star shower," due apparently to the passage of the earth through the remains of Biela's comet, which had "busted." Fragments supposed to be derived from that comet were picked up in Mexico.

Seemingly a comet is composed of meteoric particles. Its brightness is a mere reflection from the sun. Nobody can guess how or why such aggregations of particles should gather themselves together and wander aimlessly through space. But one should realize that the cosmic void is full of this sort of star dust, which (as we know from pieces of it that fall upon our planet) are commonly of iron, often of stony stuff, and in many instances containing nickel.

The "void" of space is not after all so empty. It would seem to be fairly filled with flying particles of matter—a veritable star dust, the origin of which no astronomer has ever attempted to explain.

Native Australian dress and child

Costume in Australia

THE primitive Australian gentleman has one notable advantage over his more civilized brethren. Dressmakers' bills do not bother him.

The explanation is simple; his wonted wear no clothes at all. Neither does he. So the tailor never calls upon him for the settlement of his little bill.

This simplifies the problems of life greatly. Cut out the clothing; pick up your own subsistence from day to day—fat grubs from decaying tree-trunks will supply it at a pinch—and the anxieties of existence are reduced to a minimum.

For fashion's sake, it is the custom among native Australians to cut long and deep gashes in the skin of chest and stomach, rubbing earth into them to prevent quick healing. Thus most decorative scars are preserved.

This applies to both sexes. The men paint their bodies in fearsome patterns for ceremonial occasions.

HEAD OF RUSSIAN REPUBLIC FOUND OIL IN KANSAS

Nicholas Tchaikovsky Struck Petroleum While Farming in U. S. 42 Years Ago

Didn't Know Its Value And Abandoned Well Because Water Was Spoiled

LONDON. — Nicholas Tchaikovsky, white-haired president of the North Russian republic, was ploughing on the Kansas prairies 42 years ago. At Cedar Vale, near Independence, Kan., he and 12 fellow countrymen owned and worked two farms during 1875 to 1877. They constituted a little "free" community. Their neighbors probably spoke of them as "those Russian immigrants."

One of the farms is today the site of a rich oil well. Tchaikovsky and his friends themselves began the well and discovered traces of oil.

But they didn't know what it was. As it rolled the water they abandoned the hole.

Later, Tchaikovsky spent a year visiting "shaker" and other religious settlements in New York. He worked two years as a laborer in the Roches ship yards at Chester, near Philadelphia.

Broke 30 Acres.

His kindly eyes shining and his face aglow with reminiscences—that is, that small triangle that showed above his wonderful white shaggy beard—the aged president, now one of the great influences of Russia, told of those days of peace out there with his wife and baby daughter—when the Sunflower State was still young.

"I broke 30 acres of sod all alone one spring," he said. "We went to Cedar Vale from New York. There were 13 of us, both men and women. We owned everything in common—land, horses, cattle and implements."

"Now there is a rich well in our front yard. I remember when we dug that well. About 20 to 30 feet down we reached a layer of queer-smelling clay. We didn't know what it was. The water was no good, of course, so we didn't finish the hole. Now I know what we struck was oil."

On the situation in Russia, he said:

"Within two months after Petrograd and Moscow are captured, order could be restored completely in Russia, and a constituent assembly elected representing all Russia.

"The Bolsheviks are simply a vigorous minority who by virtue of their control of the food supply and military dictatorship are able to prevail over the unarmed majority. Once the food control is wrested from them, their influence is gone. Bolshevism is not a new political philosophy which has saturated the minds of the Russian people. The bulk of the Russian people would be very glad to rid themselves of it, if they had the means."

"Petrograd could be taken in less than two months if the Allies sent between 10,000 and 20,000 additional troops to North Russia."

"Capture of Moscow would require an enveloping operation on a much larger scale for which from two to three hundred thousand additional troops should be sent."

Tchaikovsky predicted that unless checked militarily, Bolshevism will certainly spread all over southern Europe. "Whether it will reach England and France, I don't know. Perhaps not."

On a piece of paper he penciled a rough map of North Russia, embracing the provinces of Archangel, Viatka, Olonetz, Yuroslave and Kostroma, a total population of about 12,000,000. Of this, only Archangel (525,000 inhabitants) remains in the provisional government's control. The Bolsheviks have occupied the other provinces.

The present zone of operations roughly resembles a right-angled triangle, its apex at the town of Archangel, its perpendicular the Archangel-Vologda railroad (with Vologda at the angle), its hypotenuse the Dvina river as far as Viatka, and its base the Petrograd-Siberian railroad, running through Viatka and Vologda.

The present front is about one-third the way down both legs of the triangle from Archangel, along what is now the boundaries of Archangel province.

LIMA GAS MEN WILL ATTEND BIG GATHERING

National Gas Association to Discuss Important Matters at Cleveland Meeting

Lima will be represented at the convention of the National Gas Association at Cleveland May 19, 20 and 21. Emmett Curtin, president; F. L. Fringle, manager, and E. L. Malone, field superintendent, of the Lima Natural Gas company, will leave here Sunday to attend the monster gathering.

Gas men from all districts of the country will be on hand, as some matters of the utmost importance to the natural and artificial gas interests, are at stake.

Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, will read a paper, as will also many other prominent men.

The question of the West Virginia natural gas supply, relative to the shutting off of the interstate traffic, will be thoroughly discussed. The importance of this question, so far as Ohio and Pennsylvania are concerned, cannot be exaggerated, gas men say.

It is stated that Pennsylvania depends upon the West Virginia fields for 45 per cent of its total natural gas supply and that Ohio gets approximately 20 per cent of her consumption from the southern fields. If West Virginia is successful in its attempt to shut off the shipment to outside states, hundreds of thousands of dollars will have to be spent in artificial plants, and the cost to the consumer, in the alteration, will be in the neighborhood of 100 per cent.

increase over the natural gas charges.

It is believed that this convention will be the largest ever held by the gas interests. The importance of certain issues, which have not been discussed during the war period, but which need immediate attention, will attract delegates from all parts of the country.

The following men will address the meeting: George B. Cortelyou, president of the American Gas Association; Mark Requa, director of the oil division of the United States Fuel Administration; E. W. Shaw, commissioner of internal revenue; T. G. Gregory, director of the United States Fuel Administration; B. I. Welch, general secretary of the American Petroleum Institute; Dr. I. C. White, state geologist of West Virginia; and Judge C. D. Chamberlain, general counsel of the American Petroleum Institute.

STAG PICNIC WILL BE HELD BY B. I. L. SUNDAY

An outing in the form of a stag picnic will be held next Sunday, May 18, at Macbeth park under the auspices of the B. I. L. local No. 170. Special car service over the Western Ohio railway will take the picnickers to the grounds. Refreshments will be served throughout the day.

A ball game between Wapakoneta and Delphos will be a feature in the afternoon program. Services of the Lima band have been obtained and will furnish music during the festivities. If the sale of tickets can be used as an indication there will be an unusually large gathering at the outing. Arrangements are completed and the fun will be started at about 9 o'clock in the morning. With good weather promised there is no doubt as to the success of the picnic.

FEAR VIOLENCE AT ENEMY HANDS

American and British Officers in Berlin Advised to be Cautious

BERLIN — American and British officers Friday were ordered to wear multi outside their quarters, lest the Germans be incited to acts of violence. American couriers in uniform are compelled to remain inside the Hotel Adlon.

The feeling prevails in American quarters that the demonstration against the peace treaty before the Hotel Adlon, in which 15,000 persons participated Tuesday, may be only the forerunner of even graver occurrences. Despite the fact the president of police has warned the people there must be no repetition of the Adlon incident, the spirit of unrest in the city is obviously growing and according to allied officials, must soon find some outlet.

In a food riot at Stettin, 80 miles northeast of Berlin, ten persons were wounded Thursday, according to advices received here.

The cold snap comes
With perfect ease;
I jump out of my B. V. D.'s.
I wheeze,
I sneeze,
I tremble in elbows and knees,
And seek the sterner woolen stuff
That's sharp and rough,
And weighs enough.
Then suddenly—exit storm.
The weather turns exceedingly warm.
I tear,
I swear,
I paw the air,
And curse all woolen underwear.
It is one of those sudden thaws,
And I must hasten back to gauze;
I put the woolen stuff away;
The weather's fine
Almost a day.
When suddenly there comes a freeze,
And snow and sleet are in the breeze,
And then I seize
My B. V. D.'s,
And cast them off and gasp and pull Upon my frame the good old wool.
Then in five minutes, like as not,
The day is hot;
The weather's changeable, I de-

But not more so than underwear.

HOW TO TELL LITTLE CHILDREN

Parents are still too prone to assume that sweet innocence lasts for ever and a day in their children.
Then, too, it is much easier to take refuge in such an assumption than it is to meet the truth unflinchingly
and take the responsibility of enlightening children about life at the right time.

About the time of life when Santa Claus ceases to be a saint and becomes just a kind of bad joke, the girl like wise should become extinct. And now it is up to mother to instruct daughter, and father to instruct son in the mystery of reproduction. You can't leave children groping in the dark for light on this subject. If you do they are prone to get the wrong light,
which leads to disaster.

If parents do not feel competent to give children proper instruction
along these lines they are indeed deficient if they shirk the duty altogether. The boy should be instructed by a man physician, the girl by a woman physician. The subject should not be left to school teachers or Sunday school teachers or any other amateurs. It is difficult enough for the trained physician.

The government is ready to lend a hand in this instruction. The public health service has issued six helpful pamphlets dealing with sex hygiene for persons of different ages, and any one can get one of these pamphlets by addressing a request to the state health board (if there is a live health department in the state), or if not then by addressing the public health service at 223 ington, D. C. Send for the pamphlet

What He Did

NEVER IN THE HISTORY of the United States have merchants and manufacturers used the amount of advertising space as is being published today in the newspapers of the country. Men who formerly refused to believe in advertising have acknowledged they were wrong, and are buying space in every class of publication which will air their business enterprises.

THE DAILY NEWS knows a Lima merchant who, less than ten years ago, checked over his monthly advertising bill, which ran about $14, and he thought he had overspent. At this time he had a small one-room establishment with only a few clerks, and he was manager, janitor, salesman and proprietor. Today he is one of the greatest retail merchants in northwestern Ohio, and his advertising bills are far nearer $2,000 a month than $15. His banking loan credit is easily $50,000 on his name alone, and he plans still bigger additions to his great department store.

OVER THE COUNTRY live-wire merchants and manufacturers are using advertising as never before; here in Lima we cite the above dominating illustration. Can any merchant, in the face of such facts, afford to limit his appropriation for publicity?

Willing to Spend

GOVERNOR COX IS EXPECTED to veto the general emergency taxation bill which will virtually, if passed, annul the Smith one per cent law. The veto is the only salvation of the taxpayer, for if this bill passes the cities will have a right to go the limit. The Smith one per cent law expects somewhere near real values to go on the tax duplicate. Should these real values as being recorded in late real estate transactions be made the basis for property values by the decennial appraisers next year, then Lima need have no worry. Not one in one hundred business properties in Lima is on the tax duplicate at 50 per cent of the present reported sales. On the basis of recent deals one per cent on $20,000 worth of vacant lots would soon give the city magnificent returns. If Lima needs more money, let the commissioners name a new appraisal board and take recent sales reports as the basis of value. Did we hear any real estate owners yell murder?

The Wars Go on

THERE ARE SIXTEEN different little wars still going on in blood-soaked Europe. Bolsheviks alone are fighting nine wars with various Balkan nations, in addition to their inner wars at home between factions. The Poles remain at war with Germany; and the Ruthenians and with the Czechoslovaks.
Germany is fighting the Letts; Hungary is fighting the Ru-manians, the French and the Serbians, and, of course, there are several little wars between Red and White Guards, to say nothing of the clashes in Germany among themselves.

ALL OF WHICH indicates that the signing of peace at Paris is only a forerunner of the work peace has to do. Straightening up Russia and the Balkans will probably quickly follow, but in the meantime war has become the great outdoor sport in central Europe.

MISS LIMA: "Instead of the engagement ring, many brides are now taking phonographs to bind the match."

The Campaign Grows

THERE IS A STEADY growth in the campaign being inaugurated for the commission form of city government. That behind the movement are men who think twice before leaping, is unquestioned; against the movement no leader has as yet arisen, even prospective candidates for city offices remaining mute.

LABOR ORGANIZATIONS have not yet spoken, and when they do, then it may be possible to get a nucleus on the popular feeling. There is much educational work to perform, and the men behind the movement realize this and are going through to the point that when an election comes the citizenship generally will have become well informed on the pros, if not on the cons.

Today's Health Hints

HOW TO TELL LITTLE CHILDREN

Parents are still too prone to assume that sweet innocence lasts for ever and a day in their children.
Then, too, it is much easier to take refuge in such an assumption than
it is to meet the truth unflinchingly
and take the responsibility of en-
right time.

About the time of life when Santa Claus ceases to be a saint and becomes just a kind of bad joke, the girl like wise should become extinct. And now it is up to mother to instruct daughter, and father to instruct son in the mystery of reproduction. You can't leave children groping in the dark for light
on this subject. If you do they are prone to get the wrong light,
which leads to disaster.

If parents do not feel competent
to give children proper instruction
along these lines they are indeed
deficient if they shirk the duty altogether. The boy should be instructed by a man physician, the
girl by a woman physician. The subject should not be left to school teachers or Sunday school teachers or any other amateurs. It is difficult enough for the trained physician.

The government is ready to lend a hand in this instruction. The public health service has issued six
helpful pamphlets dealing with sex hygiene for persons of different ages, and any one can get one of these pamphlets by addressing a request to the state health board (if there is a live health department in
the state), or if not then by address-

'HOW MEN MAKE LOVE'

By June Elvidge

THE MOST PROPOSED-TO WOMAN IN THE WORLD

THE CAVEMAN

"The 'cave man' lover is only for the type of girl who wants to be mastered, wants to be governed, and loves to be loved overwhelmingly.
If you have a cave man for a lover, better make up your mind quickly as to whether you want him for a husband or not. If you do not, better send him away quickly and finally.
Some women need cave men for husbands. Others would be miserable with such mates. If you are of the soft, yielding type, that needs shelter and protection, one who wants to be mastered and dominated, the cave man type will suit you.

If you are self-reliant, accustomed to making your own decisions, and ordering your own life, beware of the cave man. He is not for you.

CONFESSIONS of an EVERY DAY WIFE

BY IDAH M'GLONE GIBSON

A HEART TO HEART TALK WITH LETTY

"I am going shopping, dear." I of your protected women long answered Letty when she asked me if I were going to be busy, "but you come over and we'll have a little chat and then, if you like, go shopping with me."
"But I want to see you alone."
"Well, Eliene is going to be out all morning on her Red Cross work and I think she's going to luncheon with Major Gordon."
"I'm afraid I cannot leave His Honor long enough to go shopping, but I'll run over and talk to you while you're getting ready."
"Don't tie yourself down too much, Letty. Dad will never get well and go out if you pamper and humer him all the time. He seemed to have a splendid time last night playing bridge."
"Sometimes, Margot, I feel as if I never wanted to leave him a minute."
"You're a dear," I said as I hung up the receiver.
I had never worn my blue Tricolette which I had made in New York but today it seemed the only thing
I could wear in my happy mood.
As I put it on the bed I caught myself humming, a thing I hadn't done since Theo and I had quarreled about his drinking.
My song was interrupted by Letty's arrival.
"Oh, what a stunning negligee, and look at the dear little pink buds. And see the pink and green
'underneathes!'" she exclaimed as I slipped out of my negligee and reached for my pink blouse, saying:
"Yes, I'm pink and green all thru for today I want to revel in beautiful things."
"Are you going down to buy more pretties?"
"Yes, for the rooms."
"I wish I might go with you, because I received the plans for re-furnishing last night from the decorator and I want your advice about many things. Some of the furniture and decorations he wants me to have I know will not look a bit like me."
Letty hesitated for a moment and then said:
"But first, Margot dear, I want your advice about a very personal thing, which I hate to speak of; in fact I would not speak of it if I were sure of my own judgment."
"Mercy, Letty, is it as serious as that?"
"I'm not quite sure whether it's serious or just silly. If I were on the stage I would think it quite a joke, but you see I haven't been one have never ceased to admire and ed: "Do you really think so?"

SHOWING AT A GLANCE THE GREAT CHANGES MADE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD BY THE PEACE TERMS

One map presents the new Europe, giving not only the frontiers laid down in the peace terms but also showing by dotted lines the probable or possible boundary lines to be determined upon, thus affording an approximate idea of the future European frontiers.

Another map contrasts in a striking way the great Germany of 1914 with its shrunken self of to-day, telling more plainly than words of the downfall of the arrogant Empire of the Hohen-zollerns.

A third map shows the disposition of the German colonies in Africa; a fourth map the distribution of the German Islands in the Pacific.

The fifth map shows the Chinese city of Kiaochow which is awarded to Japan, and its geographical relations to Peking, Korea, and the Japanese archipelago.

These five maps, which are included in THE LITERARY DIGEST for May 17, will make clear to the reader in five minutes what the war has accomplished in five years.

Other striking features in this week's "Digest" are:

The Peace Terms That Take All the Fight Out of Germany

"Undiluted Americanism" the Message of THE DIGEST

The final echoes of the guns of the great war are now dying away into silence and the peoples are settling down again into the pleasant paths of peace.
And, so doing, it behooves us to take to heart the vital lessons this supreme world-tragedy has taught us. Among the most important of these is the necessity of solidarity, of community of aims and ideals, of absolute unanimity. The war has proved over and over again the inherent weakness of the house that is divided against itself. We, in this country, must see to it that one language, one purpose, one high conception of life animates our teeming millions from sea to sea. Only by so doing can we hope to steer our ship of state safely through the perilous shoals of political unrest, anarchy, Bolshevism, and the like. As a teacher of Americanism, which includes and typifies all that is best in national life and aspiration, THE LITERARY DIGEST stands pre-eminent among the periodicals of the day.

It epitomizes all that the fathers of this republic sought to make permanent on our shores. It brings to your home and to your heart the message of an all-embracing humanity, of an abundant charity, of equal fellowship and impartial consideration. Get a copy now, read it through, and pass it along to your family and friends. You will be a better man and a better citizen if you make this a weekly habit.

WHEN YOU INVADE A MAN'S HABITS
WHAT HAPPENS?

By SAMUEL GOMPERS

Mr. Gompers says: It is a singularly unfortunate moment to upset further a country by an invasion of personal liberty and a fatuous attempt to reorganize, by force, the daily habits of its citizens. The very fact that in some cases these habits are harmful is, of course, not sufficient excuse for the autocratic rule that attempts to control the daily lives of those in whom such habits are without harm.

20,000 PLANES A YEAR, U. S. RATE

Speed of Building When War Ended Given Out By Officials

WASHINGTON—American factories were turning out airplanes at the rate of 20,000 a year when the war ended, Benedict Crowell, director of munitions, revealed Thursday in his official report.

Crowell said "the training plane program can be called a success."

American aviation strength on the day of the armistice was:

American planes finished 11,984

Planes made for United States by allies, 5,158.

Total planes 17,142.

American plane production October, 1918, 1,629.

Total airplane engines manufactured during 19 months of war 32,420.

Liberty engines completed 1,572.

United States strength on the front November 11, 1918, 860 planes.

When the armistice was signed, factories were making 150 airplanes engines a day.

This Takes Scratch Out Of Phonograph Records

Wouldn't you like to play all your phonograph records, loud or soft, without the exasperating scratch, rasp or surface noise? The Vivitone Controller enables you to do this, and to absolutely control the volume of music at will. The Vivitone Controller fits any needle phonograph as easily as the needle. Vibrant tenor and soprano voices ring out as smoothly and sweetly as though the singers were in the room. You hear the artists without hearing the phonograph. Rasp, scratch and surface noises are eliminated, and what is more the Vivitone waves, records and needles, effecting a saving of 500% on supplies.

YOU CAN USE ORDINARY LOUD TONE NEEDLES TEN TIMES INSTEAD OF ONCE. They just touch the record, which means less wear and tear on records and needles too. A dollar bill brings you half a dozen Vivitone Controllers by mail. Try one with your loudest record. If the result isn't amazingly satisfactory we will refund your money without a murmur.

Six Vivitone Controllers are guaranteed to last eight years. Trade your noise for music. Send dollar bill for six Vivitone Controllers today—NOW. Vivitone Controller Co., 400-402 Bell Block, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Advertisement.

April 16, 1919.

Hon. Charles S. Whitman, New York City.

Honorable and dear Sir:

I have been asked by the local Commander of the Salvation Army to address a word to you as the National Chairman of the Campaign about to be launched in behalf of the above named organization. This I am happy to do, and for the reason that along with my fellow-American citizens, I rejoice in the splendid service which the Salvation Army rendered our Soldier and Sailor Boys during the war. Every returning soldier is a willing witness to the efficient and generous work of the Salvation Army both at the front, and in the camps at home. I am also the more happy to commend this organization because it is free from sectarian bias. The man in need of help is the object of their effort, with never a question of his creed or color. I trust therefore, your efforts to raise $13,000,000 for the Salvation Army, will meet with a hearty response from our generous American public.

Faithfully yours,
(Signed) J. CARD. GIBBONS.

SWEETS

Rolls Brown Sugar Sandwiches—Use soft white bread remove all the crust. Cut very thin (must have a sharp knife) spread with soft butter then cover with brown sugar, wrap in small piece of wax paper with the end twisted firm and let them stand two or three hours, then unwrap and serve instead of cake. These are exceptionally fine for school children's lunches. One can use peanut butter mixed with the soft butter and sugar for a change.
Brown Sugar Sauce for Puddings—Good on boiled rice or other cold boiled cereals: One and one-half cups brown sugar, one cup water, one egg, pinch of salt, one teaspoon grated lemon or orange rind. Mix the sugar and water until the sugar is dissolved, put on fire and boil until it is quite thick; remove from fire and pour slowly over the egg; add salt and lemon rind, put on stove over hot water for a few minutes just to bring to the boiling point; it must not separate. This is exceptionally good on cold boiled rice and other cereals.

Apple Dainty—One quart apples, one cup brown sugar, two teaspoons butter, one cup whipped cream. Wash, pare, quarter and core the apples. Brush dish or pie tin with the butter, place the apples in and cover with the brown sugar; bake until the apples are tender. Lift carefully into ice cream glasses or glass bowl and cover with the whipped cream; garnish with candied cherries, cut into rounds, a few nuts or a few raisins.

Old-Time Cinnamon Cake—Made from raised dough. A good plan when baking bread is to take some of the sponge, say two cupfuls, to it add two tablespoons melted shortening, one well beaten egg and enough flour to make the dough so it can be rolled three-quarters inch thick; put on pie tins and set to raise. When it is double the thickness, brush the top with melted butter, sprinkle very liberally with brown sugar, a little powdered cinnamon and bake in moderate oven until brown. Another good addition is to mix two tablespoons of peanut butter with the melted butter and spread on dough; then the sugar, but not any cinnamon.

HOUSE CLEANING HINTS

Homemade Paint and Varnish Remover—Make one quart of thick starch and stir into it two tablespoons concentrated lye. Apply with a small paint brush and let stand over night. Wash thoroughly with warm water and let article become perfectly dry before applying new finish.

A Good Floor Polish—Melt not quite half a pound of beeswax and pour into it one quart of turpentine and five cents' worth of ammonia. Mix well and use while warm. Apply with a piece of old soft flannel and polish with a piece of carpet.

Grease Spots—To remove grease spots from wallpaper sprinkle a piece of blotting paper with baking soda and hold it over the spot while you press the paper with a moderately hot iron. The blotting paper will absorb the grease and the soda prevents injury to the wall paper.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING
Wallpaper Cleaner—The following recipe will remove all smoke and other signs of ordinary wear and is superior to many ready-made cleaners: Two cups sifted flour, one cup warm water, two tablespoons salt, two tablespoons coal oil, four table spoons ammonia. Blend till smooth and boil until it forms a dough, stirring constantly. Knead into a ball, break off a small piece and use till soiled.
Linoleum Rugs—Excellent linoleum may be made from pieces of old brussels carpet. Make a cooked paste of flour and water of a consistency to spread easily with a brush.

LEMON JUICE

FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Turn the carpet upside down and apply a liberal coat to the wrong side. This paste serves as a filler and prevents the carpet from soaking up too much paint. When dry paint any desired color. It will require two coats. Will wear for years with an occasional repainting. To Renew Rusted Stovepipe—A little raw linseed oil rubbed upon a stovepipe will stop rust and remove rust spots. After it is dry, use stove polish to cover the place and the pipe will look just like new.

When Poaching Eggs, if you will add a half teaspoon of vinegar to the water before dropping in the eggs you will find the eggs will hold their shape better and you won't waste so much of the white which would otherwise fall to pieces.

PESKY BED BUGS

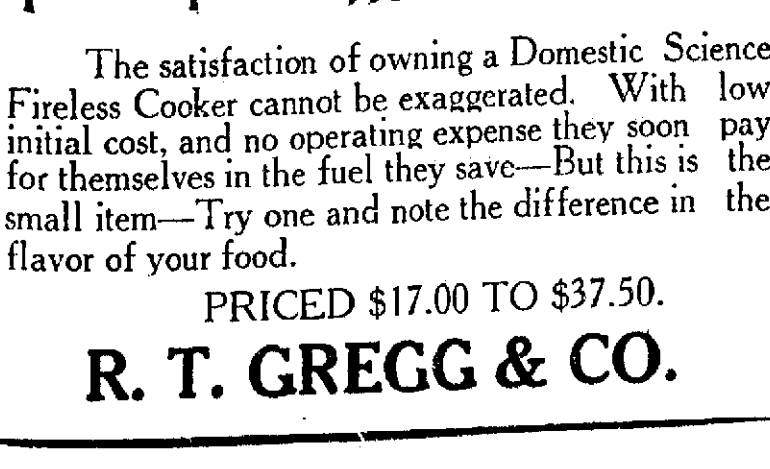

Doctors declare that bedbugs and other vermin are the most to be feared means of spreading such diseases as consumption, spinal meningitis and other infectious troubles. There is no disgrace in getting bedbugs in your home, because that can't be avoided. But it is a disgrace to permit them to remain and thrive when it is so easy to get rid of them with the new chemical compound, P.D.Q., which actually puts an end to these pesky devils.

A MILLION BEDBUGS
A 25-cent package of this golden chemical will make a quart of a mixture that is so deadly to bedbugs that it would kill a million of them if you could get that many together. If they were as big as your hand it would awe them just as well. And not only the live ones, but the future generations as well, because once it has the edge they are gone.

CUT THIS OUT
Your druggist has P.D.Q. (Pesty Devil's Queller) and will be glad to furnish it for 35 cents. One 25-cent package makes a quart of the mixture and is equal to a barrel of old-fashioned bug-killer. Some druggists may try to sell you something else. Don't accept a substitute. If your druggist hasn't P.D.Q., send us his name and 35 cents and we will send you a package postage prepaid to your address.

WILL NOT DAMAGE GOODS
P.D.Q. will not injure delicate fabrics, clothing, carpets, furniture, bedding, wall paper or woodwork. In fact, it is often used as a disinfectant and deodorant.

"27 YEARS OF INTEGRITY"

Woman and Her Work

SOCIETY AND THE CLUBS
BY MARGARET SIMPSON

The final recital of the year's work of the Women's Music club was given at the Memorial Hall Thursday afternoon. To Mrs. M. M. Keltner, who has been president for the past year, is due much credit for her splendid work. Because of the epidemic it was almost impossible to secure entertainers in the winter, but Mrs. Keltner, by putting forth every effort and giving much of her time, succeeded in making a great success of the season. Mrs. Keltner had charge of the program Thursday afternoon.

Miss Katherine Gramm beautifully played Op. 53 Chopin Polonaise. This was followed by a group of songs, "Villierella" and "Eva Dell Aqua" by Miss Blanche Fintle. Miss Irene Haruff, charmed the audience with her group of songs, "Caroline" and "Vardil," "La Tarentelle" by Jean Boyd.

Miss Helen Basinger, one of Lima's most talented readers presented "A Piper" by Josephine Preston Penbody. Misses Ruth Peck and Dorothy Ames, the last two on the program are now to the music lovers of the city. They are students at Ohio Northern University at Ada. Miss Ruth Peck is a vocal soloist. She gave a cycle of songs, "The Meadow Lark," "The Lark Now Leaves His Watery Nest" by Parker and "Break O' Day." Miss Dorothy Ames, pianiste played "Road Capriccioso," Mendelssohn; "Clair De Lune," Debussy; and "Rigolotto-Paraphrase," Verdi Liszt.

Castle Hall was a veritable bower of Spring flowers Thursday afternoon and evening when the Pythian Sisters entertained with a card party and dance. In the afternoon euchre was played with Mrs. George Meyers holding high score. About 75 couples were in attendance at the dance and card party in the evening. Lawrence Hickenbotham and Mrs. Ira Wheeler were awarded the card prizes. A jazz orchestra furnished the music.

The King's Herald of Trinity church will meet Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Remagen, of the Allen town Road.

Mrs. Hugh Murphy and Mrs. William Van Dusen entertained the F. and W. club at the Van Dusen home on State street. Mrs. Carl Komminsk gave several piano recitations and in a clever contest Mrs. Glen McClure was awarded the club prize and Mrs. Carl Zinkham and Mrs. Stein-hagen were the only losers.

Friday evening the club will entertain their husbands with a "Progressive dinner." It will start at the home of Mrs. Glen Crew, of South Baxter street, and progress from the Karl Komminsk home to Mrs. John James and to the Carl Quist home for the dessert and cigars.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Carl Quist, of West North street.

Mrs. Ben Johns delightfully entertained with a 12 o'clock dinner at her cozy new home in Homestead Wednesday. Spring flowers were used as the centerpiece of the table. Covers were laid for Mrs. J. A. V. Neely, Mrs. Edward Neuman, et al. C. S. Wharton, Mrs. Laura Fisher, Mrs. T. M. Driver and daughter, Philip, and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Farrow, of 1153 Rice avenue, are entertaining Mrs. Farrow's mother, Mrs. E. B. Blanchard, of Breckenridge, Oregon.

Mrs. Carl Roth, Miss Collette Rucker and Miss Leona Detmold, of Delphos, were Thursday visitors in Lima.

A Japanese vase? A knitting bag? A parachute turned inside out? No, you are wrong every time. It is none of these, neither is it a "shoplifter's delight," as has been suggested by some mere man who knows nothing about fashion's latest creation. This startling mode is Dame Fashion's first attempt at camouflage. And it certainly looks as if the extreme limit has been reached in the beginning.

The thing, I do not know what name to give it, is described by the designer as nothing more nor less than a "simple afternoon frock." Simple, certainly is not the right word, for I defy any modista to sit down and cut and make this "simple" frock without a pattern. The basque-like blouse and kimono-like sleeves are of yellow organdie covered with blue flowers and branches, which resemble very much the designs on oriental kimonos, or mandarin coats. The ruff facings, neck collar, and knitting bag, vase-like parachute over skirt are of yellow organdie.

It looks as if the designer will have to offer a prize to get someone to wear it, and even then it is doubtful if it will attain the popularity of such styles as the panted frock or Russian blouse.

One of the largest Spring entertainments of the city's club will be the Grand May Festival to be featured Wednesday evening, May 21st. Two fifteen-piece orchestras will furnish the music of the evening and many talented entertainers have been secured for the occasion. There will be a carnival of novel features. Dinner will be served at 8 o'clock and will be followed by dancing at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Burke have as their guest, Mrs. G. B. Nichols, of Wapakoneta.

Mrs. Clarence Weber, and daughter, of Delphos, spent Thursday in Lima with Mr. Weber, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mother's Jewels of Trinity church will meet Saturday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Roy Horn will have charge of the social hour. Mrs. I. J. Mullen, Mrs. S. H. Smith and Mrs. E. L. Churchill will be hostesses.

Mrs. Leona Feltz, of this city, spent Wednesday in St. Marys.

Mrs. James Gallagher, of Wapakoneta, is the guest of her daughter here.

Mrs. Charles Bessmann, of 1030 West Wayne street, has as her guest, her mother, Mrs. David Shind, Sr., of Wapakoneta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wagner, of South Elizabeth street, are entertaining Leroy Kibb, of Ft. Recovery for the week-end.

Miss Marian Dunn, of the Shawnee Road, has as her guest, Miss Faye Harrison, of St. Paul, Minn.

Friends of James Simons, formerly of this city, will be pleased to learn of his marriage to Miss Ethel Whitaker, in Casper, Wyoming. The ceremony was performed Tuesday, May 6th, by Father McNamara of the Indian Mission on the Shoshoni Indian reservation. Oscar Thomas of the National Supply company acted as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Ira C. Wetherill, wife of the National Supply district manager for the northwest. Mr. and Mrs. Simons are both employed in the accounting department of the National Supply Co.

They left Casper for a trip thru Colorado and the east and will visit the bridegroom's home here.

The Hawthorne club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. C. Kennedy, of South Baxter street. Nine members responded to roll call with current events. Mrs. Nettie Bacone, the president, who has recently returned from a winter in Florida told of her trip. Plans were made to aid in the Salvation Army drive. In a clever contest Mrs. J. S. Reed was awarded the prize. Mrs. Nettie Lyle was the guest of the afternoon. At 4 o'clock dainty refreshments were served.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Fisher, 755 South Elizabeth street.

Mrs. Otis Simons, of 1139 West Market street, was hostess to the Happy-Go-Lucky club at her home with Miss Nina Huilen as assistant hostess. Mrs. Donald Belford and Mrs. Walter Cullen were the prize winners in a unique contest. At the conclusion of the evening a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Alton Harshe was the only guest of the evening.

In three weeks the club will meet at the Morris home in Gomer, with Mrs. Carl Harshe and Miss Olive Morris as hostesses.

The Ladies Social Circle of the U. C. T. will meet at the hall Saturday afternoon. Mrs. T. W. Walters, Mrs. North, Mrs. Shroder, and Mrs. S. C. Dye, will act as hostesses.

Forty four members of the Good Cheer class of the Market Street Presbyterian church motored to the State Hospital Thursday and were taken thru by the Assistant matron and Dr. Clark. They were taken thru all parts and the private offices of the doctors. For the trip the members paid ten cents which will go to the charity fund of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer, 938 West Market street, are spending a fortnight at the French Lick Springs, Indiana.

Misses Emma, Alvina, and Manda Kottler, and Miss Edith Burkhardt, of St. Marys, were Thursday visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Holmes, of Wapakoneta, motored to Lima Thursday and spent the remainder of the day.

Mrs. C. W. DeMoss, of West Kirby street, has returned to her home after a visit with relatives and friends in St. Marys.

Mrs. Donald R. Peck, of the Aberdeen apartments, has returned from New York City, where she was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rison, of Holmes avenue, have received word of the safe arrival from overseas of their son, Pvt. Leo Rison.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Alf, formerly of New Mexico, are the guests of Mrs. H. Gast, of 1200 North Main street, while enroute to their new home in Cincinnati.

A GILET—Don't you know what that is? It's a cute vest for the women and is all the rage. DAZZLING SUMMER FAD

By MARGARET ROHE

Most stunning togs of every sort For every sport has May; For polo, tennis, motoring, Golf, fishing and croquet; For basket ball and swimming, too. But at the end of day, She's changed those togs so many times She's had no time for play.

NEW YORK.—Some in rags—glad rags; some in tags—large and juicy price tags—and some in velvet coats, the sport girls are coming to town. Most every one knows that the smartest sport togs are worn in town, anyway, strolling down Fifth Avenue rather than through open fields and a swaggy sweater and tricolette skirt are just as much in evidence tling at the Ritz as teaing on the golf course.

But be that as it may, the newest velvet sport coats that are crowding the ubiquitous sweater for sport supremacy this season are certainly winners. Some are cut on Tuxedo lines, while others affect the belted Norfolk style and both are equally effective.

One stunning belted model in black velvet has a panel collar bound with black braid that ends in two novel pockets, button trimmed at each side of the front. Two buttons embellish the plain tight sleeves and two also fasten the braid trimmed belt. The coat is lined with white silk.

Black satin coats are also smart and wool Jersey Norfolk jackets, in all vivid shades, turn the sweaters pale with envy. Still sweaters are by no means to be cold-shouldered out of the picture. Coat sweaters of silk and wool still cling to sporty shoulders and the slip-on ones of wool or silk, either with or without sleeves have taken on a new angle or two, with a fillet weave that opens up new possibilities within its crocheted squares and fillet motifs. Vivid and hectic shades of sweaters are still in the running, though guaranteed not to run, yet the pure white sweater or the one black as the Kaiser's conscience are the two chic favorites.

It is the sport skirt that is a perfect riot of color this season—so much so that it is indeed almost necessary for a subdued black velvet or a chaste white sweater to top off such frivolities with a dignified finish.

In tricolette, Georgette satin and Fantasi silks they are tucked and pocketed, pleated and button trimmed. In ball room shades of pink, turquoise, orchid, apricot and Nile green they combine satin stripes up-on Georgette base in a manner to reveal much shapely symmetry.

Hardier, more durable but no less smart, are the skirts of flannel and of serge. All white serge skirt shown a penchant for many pin tucks bisecting them around and round, with rows of bone buttons, down one side or both and always tucked and buttoned pockets. The tricolette skirts weave their silken charms around fair neither limbs in all colors of the rainbow, but depend rather on their color and material beauty than on trimming and ornate garnishment for the effects.

Flannel and serge skirts run to nowadays in up-to-date New York the sirens of the sport feel that they are winners only when they are crowned with a floppy wide brimmed hat of helle hued and coarse meshed straw, garland, ribbon or fruit-wreathed or else a smart, close fitting, shiny black straw sailor banded in brilliant polka dotted, Roman striped or fantastically figured silk.

OLD-TIME GOLD CURE DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

MILLINERY SUMMER FURS

USEFUL FROCK FOR WEEK-END VISITS

By ELOISE

With the warmer days approaching, week-end trips to the country and beaches will be more frequent. The clothes for the week-end visit are always an important problem especially nowadays when one is just as likely to attend a bridge party or a tea dance in the country as in the sophisticated city. Besides the usual negligee, lingerie, and toilet articles one should always include in the week-end luggage a dressy suit blouse, a fresh tailored one for the return trip, an extra wrap such as a sweater or top coat, a morning walking or some sort of sport costume and an afternoon or dance frock.

This one pictured makes a charming utility frock suitable for almost any social occasion which might arise between Friday and Monday at a country club or the summer estate. It is made of navy blue taffeta with an oversleeve and sleeves of silk dotted net trimmed with tulle. The dress is accented with a belt. The smart little hat worn with the frock has a crown of crushed rose petals, a net of rose velvet about it and a wide turned up flange of navy tulle forming the brim. It is extremely simple, yet very lovely and a nice thing about it is that it may be packed even in a traveling bag because it is soft.

IN SUSIE SMART'S DAILY MAIL

Dear Miss Smart: I am a married woman eighteen years old and would like to know how to clean my face of headheads, as it is nearly covered with them.

I have tried massaging, but it does not help very much.

HEART AND HOME READER.

Try the green soap treatment for a bad case of headheads: Tincture of green soap, two ounces; distilled water, two ounces. Let this mixture stay on only a few moments, then wash off with hot water.

If the green soap irritates the skin, as it sometimes will, use it every other day. Apply a cold cream.

Green soap may be purchased at any drug store. It is not a regular "cake" soap, but is of about the consistency of custard.

Open each seed with the point of a fine cambric needle. The hardened mass must be pressed or picked out. The empty sac or the gland should then be bathed with a little toilet vinegar and water, or with a very weak solution of carbolic acid. Sterilize the needle before using it by dipping into boiling water.

Probably a member of your family can assist you in squeezing out the blackheads. It is a little difficult to do it to one's own face.

Dear Miss Smart: I am going with a very nice young man in this city. We think a great deal of each other and he is very good to me, but his one great fault worries me. He is never on time. His excuses are always good, but can you tell me some way to make him more prompt? Am I too particular?

BLUE EYES

The young man's fault certainly must be annoying. Tell him how you feel about his coming late. Say that you are going to expect him to be more prompt, but if he is late you do not want him to make any excuses or explain—that the fact of his tardiness is annoying and you do not want the annoyance intensified by talking about it. I believe that when he knows how you feel he will make a greater effort not to disappoint you.

Dear Miss Smart: I became engaged to a young man before he went to France. I didn't want to become engaged when he asked me to marry him, but he begged me to and said he would be able to leave with a much better feeling. We had been friends for a long time and in all our acquaintance I had never thought I could love him.

When I became engaged I thought that I was doing my bit. It seemed such a shame to let a dear friend go across, feeling that he had no one back home who loved him.

We corresponded for a while and then he stopped writing. I worried terribly and wrote to Washington to see if he had been killed, but there was no report of it. The strange thing is that after he went away I found I loved him more than I had ever known.

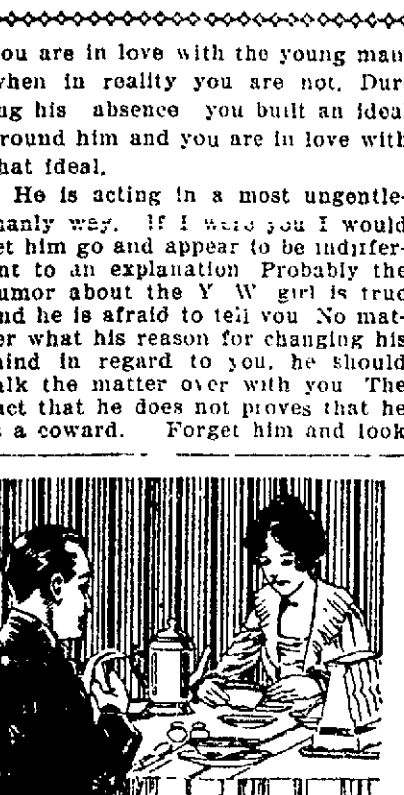

Now he has returned. He did not tell me that he was coming and he has not been to see me since he got back. I have heard from friends that he fell in love with Y. W. girl when he was over there. He talks about her all the time.

When we meet on the street he speaks to me, but does not act as if we were engaged.

I am heartbroken and want to win back his love. Shall I write him a letter? Please advise me how I can make him explain his actions.

HEART-BROKEN.

You have made yourself think that Upon my life, good little wife, This coffee's frightful dusty. Some peddler must Have sold this dust. It tastes so flat and musty

The dust and chaff often found in coffee sold by peddlers and syndicate stores result from improper grinding. Golden Sun Coffee is steel cut. This releases all the flavor and aroma and avoids dust and chaff. Your grocer sells it.

Cleaner Homes

ALL vacuum cleaners clean, but cleaner cleaning is what this new Western Electric Cleaner insures.

Its use means cleaner homes for it is built differently, cleans differently than any other cleaner on the market. These are the reasons:

To high suction it adds a motor-driven brush, which gently taps out the dirt. If you wish to stop the brush action you simply turn a little switch—the high suction power will go on just the same.

It is lighter than any other motor-driven brush type cleaner. It runs easily over any thickness of rugs or carpets without adjustment.

The worm gear makes possible the combination of high suction and a brush properly speeded for the life of the rug. This insures clean cleaning.

This cleaner "that is different" is built to clean and to wear. Come in and let us tell you all about it.

C. O. P. PROGRAM TO BE ACTED ON

Legislative Schedule Will be Presented to Caucus Saturday Night

WASHINGTON. — A legislative program of ten important measures was taken up by the house Republican steering committee Friday for submission to the entire Republican membership in caucus Saturday night.

The program, if adopted, will be regarded as a promise to the country to see that the ten measures are carried thru with all possible speed.

They are:
Repeal of the luxury tax; return of the wires; adoption of a shipping policy; settlement of the railroad problem; passage of a constitution amendment; enactment of a budget system; tariff revision; aid for men coming from the service; economy in public expenditures; and passage of essential appropriation bills.

The work on appropriation bills will, of necessity, be the first matter taken up, but repeal of the luxury taxes and perhaps suffrage will be rushed thru the house very early in the session, party leaders said.

Return of the wires will also come up for early consideration.

With the exception of the wire return, luxury tax and suffrage questions, the committee did not attempt to commit the party to any policy. This will be left wholly in the hands of the various legislative committees, which have charge of measures.

Representative Madden, Illinois, who suggested the outline of a party slate to carry before the caucus, said that more measures might be added to it in caucus.

There are suggestions that immigration restrictions be made a part of the Republican program. The steering committee also decided to ask the chairman of the three house election committee to challenge Victor Berger, Milwaukee socialist congressman-elect, when he presents himself to be sworn in next week.

DEMAND WAGE BOOST
FALL RIVER, Mass.—Approximately 600,000 members of the United Textile Workers of America Friday made demands for an increase of wages amounting to 15 per cent, according to an announcement by John Golden, president of the union.

The increase would date from May 26, according to the demands and would be effective until April 1, 1920.

Baseball Chatter

Five years ago, Jess Barnes, who is now one of the leading right-handers of the National league, was a splintered kid toiling in the uniform of the Davenport club in the Three I league. About all he had was a fast ball, but that was about all he needed, and so effective did he utilize it that the attention of major league clubs were attracted to him. One day the manager of the Davenport club told him that a thirty days' option on his services had been sold to the Cubs, and so he packed his little suit roll and boarded a train for the Windy City.

"So I went back to the bushes to start all over again. Nearly two years later I was sold to the Braves. There wasn't quite the thrill in it for me the second time that there was when I was first ordered to report to a major league club, but I was properly awed and just a little bit scared. I was more scared the first time I was called on to pitch in a championship game.

"It was in St. Louis that Stallings told me that I was to start my first contest game. Being just a kid I was considerably rattled when I faced the first Cardinal batter and I had hard work getting the ball over the plate in the first inning. When I did manage to get it over I didn't have much on it, with the result that they got to me for two runs. I was still somewhat shaky when the Cardinals finally had been retired and I got back to the dugout, but the older players soon quieted my nerves with some sound advice.

Arthur Wilson, erstwhile Giant catcher, who is now backstopping for the Braves, is convinced that unless he changes his style of batting he won't make more than three or four hits this season. This is because Wilson is "a rank left field hitter," to use the parlance of the athletes, and rival fielders, fully aware of the fact, know exactly where to play for him and succeed in snugging his hardest drives. Wilson is particularly unfortunate in being strictly a left field hitter when the Braves are playing the Giants, for driving the pellet into the territory guarded by George Burns is not calculated to develop into a very nourishing manner of spending one's afternoon.

Jimmy Hill, the featherweight champion of Australia, is coming to America for the purpose of arranging a match with Johnny Kilbane. According to Tim O'Sullivan, Hill is as far above the other men of his class in Australia as was the late

Les Darcy among the middleweights. Hill is so superior to the other featherweights that he has been forced to go out of his class and box in the lightweight division. He recently outpointed Harry Stone, the New York welterweight.

The addition of Perritt and Toney will strengthen the only weak department on McGraw's team. The showing of the pitchers thus far has not been satisfactory and it was an open secret that the hurling department was causing the manager grave concern.

Perritt was the "ace" of the New York staff last season. Last year he discovered oil on his lands in Louisiana and that fact caused him to announce his retirement from the game. The fever for the sport returned, however. It is expected that he will take only a short time to get in condition. While with Cincinnati Toney was regarded as the "star" of the Reds' staff and one of the leading hurlers in the league.

Lieut. Lloyd Waite, formerly a Pirate, and recently returned from France, where he served in the same artillery regiment with Grover Alexander, says that the Germans know a lot more about baseball than is generally supposed.

On several occasions, when American soldiers were playing games in dangerously exposed positions, Germans within good firing distance not only let them alone, but stood up in their trenches and hooted derisively when anybody made a fielding error. "And," says the lieutenant, "may be you think it wouldn't get a fellow hot under the collar, after mugging a fly with bases full, to get the raspberry from a whole Bavarian regiment cross the way!"

Jim Thorpe is playing in his usual luck. He adorns the bench until the last inning or so and when he does burst into the game is so anxious to knock the cover off the ball that he flizzles.

INFANT SUCCUMBS
Miss Mary K. Rice, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rice of 635 St. Johns avenue, died Wednesday. Funeral services will be held in the Siferd undertaking parlors and interment will be in Woodlawn cemetery. The Rev. Franklin will officiate.

PROVIDE MONUMENT FUND
COLUMBUS.—The house finance committee Friday placed in the appropriation bill a $20,000 item which will provide for the finishing of the Perry monument at Put-in-Bay. Work on the monument up to date has cost $1,000,000. The monument will be turned over to the federal government when finished in August.

MEETINGS ANNOUNCED

In accordance with the usual plan of the Y. M. C. A., the following noon day meetings for the coming week are announced: Monday, Biddle at East Iron and Rev. Moon at the L. E. & W. machine shop. Tuesday, Biddle and Franklin at the Locomotive Works. Wednesday, Biddle and Moon at the Garford. Thursday, Biddle and Moon at the B. & O. machine shop; Mr. Welty at the coach shop and a Friday meeting at the Gramm Bernstein.

WORKERS MEET TO PLAN DRIVE

Salvation Army Officials Are Optimistic Over Coming Drive

Ward and precinct leaders who will conduct the Salvation Army campaign in this city next week met at a luncheon at the Lima Club at noon Friday to discuss final plans for the drive. County Chairman O. N. Young presided and introduced the various officials. A. W. Wheatley, district chairman, was in attendance. Mr. Wheatley made a short address in which he complimented the workers on the fine spirit they are showing and upon the organization they have built up. He was optimistic concerning the outcome of the campaign and expressed the opinion that the county's quota will be raised early in the week.

Chairman Young added encouragement and briefly outlined the plans for the campaign and said he expected the county to go over the top by Tuesday night.

Mrs. Leah M. Butler, who has charge of the arrangements for "Doughnut Day," which will be held next Wednesday, told of the arrangements her organization have made for making this one of the most successful features ever held in a campaign here. She said the women of Lima are willing to do everything possible to aid in this work and said there will be plenty on hand to carry out the program.

Several other workers spoke and all were equally enthusiastic and optimistic as to the outcome.

It was announced that the great union church meeting Sunday evening which will officially open the campaign will be in the form of a community sing. The singing will be led by Fred Calvert, well-known local choir leader, and it is expected to be one of the biggest affairs of its kind ever held here. The meeting will open promptly at 7:30 o'clock with the singing, which will continue for at least half an hour. Following this there will be a few brief talks by officials and ministers.

Practically every church in the city will participate.

All overseas soldiers of the city and county are desired to attend a meeting at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium to discuss plans for the campaign. The meeting has been called by Lieut. W. B. Wilcox.

ANTI-FLY DRIVE IS DUE IN LIMA

Health Board To Take Up Crusade — Rules Are Issued

Lima's annual anti-fly campaign is due to be launched by the local Health Board with Dr. Burton at the head. A bigger effort than ever will be used this year to rid the city of the lowly pest. Literature containing information as to what to do and what not to do about flies is being circulated.

The "Fly Rule" table which has been issued follows:

Keep your own premises free from fly "nuisances," such as decaying animal or vegetable matter; have garbage cans carefully covered, and all refuse promptly removed.

Screen windows and doors early and keep the screens up until after the fly season.

Sweep every fly in the house, especially in the kitchen and dining room.

Keep flies from all food and never allow them in the sick-room.

Allow no waste paper and decaying matter to accumulate about the house.

Watch the basement or cellar for forgotten refuse and get it out.

Burns and stables or their surroundings must be kept clean, and all manure must be kept covered in water-tight boxes or pits.

YANKS WILL DINE

Y. M. C. A. Plans Banquet for Returned Soldiers

The Y. M. C. A. will again be host to returned soldiers and sailors at a banquet to be held in the social rooms of the new building Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock. Those who have returned since the last banquet April 16 are the invited guests.

Explanation of the insurance problem will be given by Austin Potter. Happy Knock, vaudeville artist, will feature some of his "stunts." A United War Work representative also will speak.

Invitations have been sent out to upwards of 300 men who have returned since the date of the last affair. Any man returning who has not received an invitation may register at the building and be guaranteed a place.

APPEAL IS TAKEN

An appeal in common pleas from a justice's court decision, was entered by McRay and Arnold against Ray Hinkle involving the ownership of a piece of machinery known as a pulling machine. A writ of replevin had previously been issued in a justice court which the company is said to have found necessary to recover the property.

WOMAN SHOTS SELF

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Mrs. Beatrice Price, wife of Thomas E. Price, millionaire grain broker, died Thursday night from a self-inflicted bullet wound, Price declared Friday.

Mrs. Price shot herself Wednesday evening. Her health is given as the cause for her act.

FORMATION OF THE OHIO NATIONAL GUARD ORDERED

COLUMBUS — Adjutant General Layton Friday issued a call for the immediate formation of the Ohio National Guard, composed of two infantry regiments, one to be located in northern and the other in southern Ohio. Men who served in the Rainbow and 37th division will be given preference.

Federal appropriation will allow but two infantry regiments now, but it is expected that artillery and cavalry units will be organized later on. The naval militia is yet to be re-organized.

FLU ON DECLINE

Only 12 Cases Reported During the Month

Only twelve influenza cases have been reported so far this month to Dr. Burton, health officer. Dr. Burton returned to Lima April 1st, after spending a few months in Florida and says that there is much negligence on the part of persons contracting the disease in reporting the cases. He says that there are likely more cases in Lima than are reported but there is no way for the health office to know of them unless they are reported.

The few cases in Lima now, show a great decrease in the list, since there were 92 cases on record in April, 55 in March, and 37 last January. So far in the month of May there have been but two deaths which are contributed primarily to influenza, altho the deaths resulted directly from complications which followed.

40 LOTS SOLD FOR NEW HOMES

Tract on North Side Used For War Gardens Changes Hands

The largest sale of suburban land yet reported this season is announced in connection with the purchase in its entirety of the War Garden addition to the city of Lima. The consideration was unofficially given as $12,000.

The tract which comprises forty lots was acquired by E. P. Milbaugh from Kent W. Hughes. It is situated on the north side of the city.

Information relating to the future use of the property leads to the assertion of the Spellacy Realty company, which made the deal, that it will be used by the new owner for building purposes. The erection of new homes on the ground will begin soon.

FORM AVIATION COMPANY

COLUMBUS—Four former army aviators Friday incorporated the Columbus Aviation Company, with a capitalization of $10,000. The company is to manufacture planes and parts and commercial flyers will be furnished to business houses. Incorporators say they will furnish work to returning aviators.

SMALL FIRE LOSS

Central fire trucks were called Thursday afternoon to the home of C. M. Townsend at 876 west Spring street where a small blaze had started on the roof by sparks from the chimney. The blaze was extinguished by the use of chemicals. Only about $5 damage was done.

HARROD MAN DENIES HE DECEIVED YOUNG WOMAN

The defendant in the $10,000 breach of promise suit now pending against C. Mitchell Harrod, Harrod, instituted by Bernice Washburn, filed an answer to her allegations in common pleas court Thursday.

He admits her charges that he took her for rides in automobile on several different occasions and that he is a married man, but states that he had never deceived her and had never promised to marry her.

In her petition she stated that their acquaintance started when she was employed as an elevator operator at the Lima House and he had paid her attentions after their meeting. This he admits, but denies any promise to marry her.

OFFICES CHANGED

Several changes in the location of county offices at the court house are being made. Remodeling of the third floor to furnish quarters for the recorder's office is under way. The county commissioners will occupy one-half of the office vacated by the recorder, the remaining half to be equipped for the use of the treasurer. Inadequate space necessary in the treasurer's office necessitated the change.

EXECUTOR APPOINTED

D. H. Crites, 607 west Elm street, has been appointed executor of the estate of the late Samantha Adams Amanda township. The will filed in probate court provides for the division of personal property to the amount of $1050 among eight heirs.

WILSON RECEIVES VISITORS

PARIS—There was no session of the "big four" Friday and President Wilson spent the day receiving numerous visitors.

WASH GOWNS AND HATS TO SUIT FANCY OF SUMMER GIRL

Style and Fashion Important, but Miss Springtime Is Interested in Frock That Will Slip on Easily, "Stay Put" and Which She Can Wear Without Fear of Musing Because It Can Be Laundered

Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co.

What could be lovelier for a girl's summer wardrobe than this exquisitely simple yet modish dress of pink georgette, white net and dotted organdie developed with tiny tucks and hemstitching. The hat is the ever popular lagoon, ribbon and flowers trimmed.

By EDITH M. BURTIS

NOTHING in a girl's wardrobe is of any greater importance than the so-called wash dress—the dress that can be taken into the tub and brought out sparkling again, that is, of course, after it has enjoyed the magic of the moon.

In a dress that will launder, I think, a girl really can have a better time than in one that is fearful of soiling, knowing the uncertainty of a cleaning process other than the good old-fashioned soap and water.

And yet it must be said in all justice to the people who make a business of dyeing that the most washable, the daintiest of fabrics, can be cleaned to look like new, but this is an expensive process for a girl's summer wardrobe.

What could be lovelier for a young girl's summer wardrobe than this exquisitely simple yet modish dress of pink georgette, white net and dotted organdie developed with tiny tucks and hemstitching. The hat is the ever popular lagoon, ribbon and flowers trimmed.

And speaking of this hat reminds me of the smart hat I have recently shown you. She had taken a several seasons old lagoon with a wide brim and cut the brim down to a smart point, like him, sort of a glorified jockey brim; had faced the under side of the brim with pink georgette, bound the rough and cut edge with ribbon velvet and then almost completely covered the crown with tiny rosebuds, sewed flat and pressed-like and finished with a band and smart bow of the ribbon at the center front. So much depends upon the hat one wears with a summer frock that most girls desire to have a large and extensive variety of hats. Personally, I know of no better way to develop an artistic and creative understanding of clothes than to encourage a young girl to at least make over her old hats.

But to get back to dresses; delightfully simple and in good taste for the summer girl is the dress of yellow linen, embroidered in self-colored floss and lined at the neck with a girlish collar of tacked white net. This is a real girl's dress and yet who can say that it is lacking either in dignity or in smart style?

This darling summer hat for a darling girl is of rose pink straw and has a unique crown band of French flowers and grapes in tones of rose, blue and mauve.

And it will wash. Doubtless interesting and altogether practical is the smart coat style dress of white linen effectively embroidered and with vest, collar and under sleeves of organdie.

And it must be known that, aside from all matter of style, fashion and being ingenuous, all girls and most young women will with delight the summer frock that is easy to put on and will "stay put." Time is so precious, pleasures are so pressing, fun is so contagious, that the normal girl has little time for frills and furbelows that require precious time for adjusting.

An effective yet decidedly simple application of narrow white braid gives an air of fashionable distinction to the practical model of blue linen shown on the second figure. A vest and collar of white organdie complete this very desirable summer dress, that has a swag-like tailored effect that is very pleasing and that is particularly becoming to the athletic type of girl.

Worn with this smart dress is a sailor hat of rough blue straw, adding just the necessary finishing touch of a smart tailor-made effect to this outfit.

And right here it seems that we must get back to hats. Nothing is more desirable in the way of millinery in a young girl's summer wardrobe than the smart practical sailors, for these are generally becoming, cool, comfortable and really inexpensive. While the initial expense of a good sailor may seem an extravagance, the fact that these hats may be cleaned by various processes makes them in the end a very profitable investment for the summer wardrobe.

Black and dark colored sailors may be kept free from dust if brushed daily with an ordinary hat brush and if occasionally and especially after a long tramp or motor trip, besides the brushing, they are wiped off with a silk cloth that has been slightly dampened with alcohol.

The other extreme from this severe sailor model is the darling summer hat of rose pink straw, and yet this hat, too, is a desirable and necessary adjunct to the girl's summer wardrobe.

This is her dress-up hat. And particularly interesting and pleasing is the color combination of this picture model, for the rose pink straw is trimmed with a unique crown band of exquisite French flowers and grapes, in tones of rose and old blue and mauve.

Of unique shape is the garden or bench hat of black milan straw, trimmed with pink satin roses and old blue ribbon velvet. Just the summer hat in both shape and coloring to please many a young girl and a desirable one for them to select. For it is a practical model.

Blue serge seems to be the most favored, and many of these garments in this material are given a military air by use of brass buttons.

Ginghams in all their colorful and crisp smartness are fashionable for girls, big and little. Black ribbon velvet is an exceedingly smart trimming for such dresses, giving just the snap and dash that make such frocks a delight to wear and to observe.

Fashion Notes

FOR midsummer, white dresses with clever touches of color introduced are a new fashion feature for little girls. Diping and narrow ruffles of color are applied, matching the girdles or sashes or ribbon.

Little frocks of flesh-colored georgette are trimmed only with hemstitching except for sashes of color, rosettes or ribbon streamers, usually in two colors, in the sweetest combination.

Darling little poke bonnets of delicate straw and georgette are trimmed with ribbon only, or with delicate wreaths of flowers and ribbons.

Dainty frocks of net and others of organdie are the suggestion many shops are making for graduation use. Georgette is also advised rather than those of lace or silk, though, of course, lace is in good taste as a trimming.

Decadently patterned organdies are being made up into charming little dresses, the lines of which conform to the fabric motif, and this develops models of exquisite qualities. Plain colored organdies are also used, many trimmed with lace.

Ribbon in the form of tiny flowers is a delightful trimming seen on many girls' dresses. This trimming naturally gives opportunity for effective color combinations.

Soft brimmed straw sailors are fashioned in black, navy and emerald green and rose red and are trimmed with crown bands and extremely long streamer ends, in matching color grain ribbon.

The crocheted sweater is not only the newest innovation for grown-ups, but for the children as well, and more beautiful and unusual models are being worn and displayed. These new sweaters are of the sleeveless variety and in very bright and gay colors.

Swagger little capes and cape wraps come on the order of those worn by their elders are to be accepted rather generally for little girls, it is predicted.

DRIVERS LINING UP FOR RACE

INDIANAPOLIS. — Rene Thomas and Albert Guyot, winners of first and third places in the Indianapolis 500-mile race, respectively, have arrived from France for the Indianapolis 500-mile Liberty Sweepstakes on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, May 31, forming the vanguard of the Ballot team that will champion the tricolor in that historic event.

Louis Wagner and Jules Bablot, remaining members of the Ballot combination, are following hard on the heels of their confreres, having sailed from Havre on May 26 with the expectation of arriving on the scene of the fray on or about the middle of the month.

Another European star to check in for the big classic is Dario Resta, winner of the 1916 Indianapolis race and victor in the A. A. A. driving championship that year, who arrived with Louis Costalen, chief designer of Sunbeam cars and aviation motors, the latter hailing from Wolverhampton, England. Resta will team with Jean Chassagne at the wheel of a pair of Sunbeams in the Indianapolis contest.

The arrival of Thomas, Guyot and Resta rounds out a quintet of European drivers now quartered at the Indianapolis motor speedway in active preparation for the Liberty embroglio, the other members consisting of Goux and Chassagne. This is the earliest that European drivers have ever made their appearance on the scene for an Indianapolis contest, and augurs ill for the American drivers who will compete against them.

The only defenders of the Stars and Stripes who are now getting into shape at the speedway are Howard

Wilcox, who, however, has as yet not entered the event and therefore can not be classed as competition, and Elmer T. Shaunan, who will campaign in the 500-mile at the wheel of a Mesaba Special. Shaunan vaulted into the arena from Chisholm, Minn., bringing with him a car that derived its name from the celebrated range of iron ore owned by the U. S. Steel Corporation near Shaunan's home. No trace of iron enters into the car's composition, however, as it is in reality a Duesenberg, formerly raced under the name of Duluth Special at Chicago and other important meets.

Shannon is a newcomer to the Indianapolis track, however, he enjoys an excellent reputation in the Northwest, having won several road and dirt track races of interstate prominence. Judged by first impression, he seems to possess all the qualifications of a star driver, combining an excellent physique with keen mental ability, and his early presence on the track indicates good judgment. Shannon may not prove a winner in the Indianapolis event, but he looks like a comer and will bear a good deal of watching.

Ringside Flashes

Tommy Gavigan, Cleveland, and Greek Brown, Toledo, protégé of Director Byrnes of the Toledo Athletic Club, will feature the main event in the boxing carnival arranged by new Moore A. C. at Sandusky May 28. They will go ten rounds at the Lyceum theater.

The woods are full of championship contenders in the light and feather weight classes. The latest to appear is Bunny Valger, who won a referee's decision over Frankie Britt in New Bedford Thursday night. Valger gave Arnie Root a trouncing in Toledo some time ago. His manager is clamoring for a chance at Johnny Kilbane. Valger claims to be the featherweight and lightweight champ of New England.

Times have changed for Jack Dempsey. Fans recall how Dempsey went against Jack Downey in Salt Lake City in a four round mill, for which he got all of five dollars. Downey got the decision. A second fight was staged between the pair, for which Dempsey got seven and a half dollars. But in the third match between these two youths the price was raised to $12.50 and Jack Dempsey put Downey to sleep in the second round.

The Maumee River Yacht Club, Toledo, has put in a reservation for $3,500 worth of tickets to the Dempsey-Willard battle. The tickets will be sold to members of the club at their lobster party at the clubhouse May 28th.

One by one the states are falling in line on the boxing proposition. Michigan is the latest, with Detroit the probable center of the sport for that state. Jackson, Battle Creek, Saginaw, and Grand Rapids have already been staging minor bouts thru the courtesy of the municipal and county authorities, and they will go in for their share of arena shows.

VEETOS ADVERTISING BILL

COLUMBUS—Governor Cox Friday vetoed the Wise bill which attempted to provide a new schedule of rates for legal advertising in newspapers. The bill was vetoed because the legislators made a mistake and amended the wrong section of the law.

BASLE — Cardinal Hartmann, according to a dispatch from Cologne Friday, has sent a formal request to Pope Benedict to "save the German people from threatening ruin."

CHAMPION AMATEUR SHOT IN AMERICA

J. E. Jennings

NEW YORK — (Special)—J. E. Jennings of Todmorden, Canada, won the fourteenth annual amateur championship of America at day targets over the traps of the New York Athletic club at Travers Island, when he took the title with 197 out of a possible 200 targets. The new champion finished the morning string with 97 out of a possible 100 targets. He ran straight during the afternoon, establishing a record for the shoot. It was the first time in the history of the championship that the title has been taken out of the United States.

F. S. Wright of Buffalo, who won the championship of New York state earlier in the week, finished second with 195. There was a tie for third place between G. S. McCarthy, Philadelphia, a former national champion; Mark Arle of Thomasboro, Ill., and J. B. McIlough of Wilmington, Del. Each had a total of 194. On the shoot off the prizes went in the order given.

Five gunners tied for the sixth prize. They were finally placed with M. S. Hootman, another Canadian, in the lead. Then came J. Clarke, Jr., Worcester, Mass.; W. H. Yule, New York A. C.; J. B. Johnston, Jr., Pittsburg, and C. Bumister, Chicago.

The shoot was the best that has ever been given for the title, both in point of attendance and in scores. In the aggregate 168 gunners went after the title. Of the number twenty-four had better than 190 out of a possible 200 targets.

BIG SHOOT SET FOR AUGUST

August 17 will be known as championship day for the men competing in the Grand American Handicap shooting tournament at Chicago. On that day shooting begins in the morning at 10 o'clock, with the American amateur championship at double targets. At 2 p. m. the national amateur championship at single targets, 16 yards rise, will be shot over four traps.

This race is open only to the winners of state championships or runners-up. The eastern and western districts of Canada are regarded as separate states. The Illinois state championship titular events are this year being shot at 300 targets, which precludes any false alarms getting in the national titular event.

"Hank O'Day was managing the Cubs at that time," says Jess. "and I, who had dreamed of some day reaching the major leagues, was just a trifle more anxious to make good than the average busher. For thirty days I pitched to batters in practice and warmed the bench through the games. I threw 'em up at my teammates until my back ached and my arm felt as if it would drop off, but I consoled myself with the thought that I was making good and that my days in the sticks were over. And then, one night, O'Day informed me that I had been turned back to Davenport."

"Disappointed? Say, I didn't even want to see a baseball again and I felt that way all of two hours. I began to feel better as soon as I heard that I had been turned back only because the Davenport club wanted a great deal more money for me than I was worth at the time. Had I been a 'phenom' the Cubs probably would have paid the price demanded, but I wasn't anything like that. I was just a pretty good pitcher who might or might not make good in fast company, and the Cubs naturally didn't feel justified in tossing over a barrel of dough for my contract."

"Kid," said Rabbit Morante, putting his hand on my shoulder, "don't be afraid of those guys. Just remember that they don't hit 'em any harder up here than they do in Davenport and stick the ball right over the plate. We'll take care of most of those that hit back of you."

"I was very much encouraged at that and when I went out to the box for the second inning I had collected my wits and began to pay attention to the advice passed out to me by the other players. The windup was that I kept the Cardinals away from the plate for the remainder of the game and the Braves won out. I managed to stick with the Braves, as you know, until I came to the Giants. I'll say this is quite a ball club and it's a pleasure to play on it."

Barnes has started with a rush this year as he did in 1918.

LIMA ATHLETIC CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING TONIGHT AT C. OF C.

Officers To Be Duly Installed

Tonight the newly organized "Lima Athletic Club" will hold its first regular meeting in the Chamber of Commerce, Business College block, at which time the elected officers will take their chairs, and the club given its official sanction and approval.

Without a dissenting voice Lima men who are interested in good, clean sport of all kinds are wholeheartedly in favor of the forming of the club, and have offered to do all in their power to foster and make this a real active, propelling factor in the life of local athletics.

Lima has moved up out of the provincial back-woods type of community and needs a club which will express in the sport world what the business men's clubs and larger social organizations have meant for the city. It is to be a haven for ambitious youngsters who are striving for prominence, a club to which the better class of the country's athletes will look, and a factor in the world of sportdom.

"It is a mighty fine idea," said J. T. Kaufman, who will act as president of the Lima Athletic Club, "and I am pleased that the organizers have cared to elect me. I will do what I can to further the work, which is bound to be of benefit to the city."

Jo Cousins, first vice-president, typifies the spirit that will carry the club to success.

"I am with the club from top to bottom," he said, "and you can ask me for anything. I will do all I can to give Lima a real athletic club that will mean something to the city."

H. E. Simonton, secretary of the organization, has commenced his work by sending notice of the meeting tonight to all trustees and interested parties, including the suburban trustees.

"I am keenly anxious for its success," he said. "With the new civic improvements coming to Lima, and the city at the beginning of vast growth I believe that the time is most opportune for such a club, not only to take care of the incoming population, but show to those here, and to other cities, that we are the right kind of people, and plan to follow the bigger cities in our plan of life."

March Altshul, treasurer, stated that he was also much enthused with the plans of the new club, and would give it his entire support.

J. L. MacKenzie, county commissioner, second vice-president, was much elated at the prospects offered by the formation of this club, and the great amount of advantage, not only to the city in general, but to the individual who will of necessity turn to something that calls the full-blooded Americanism out of him.

The great many returning soldiers, trained to fine physical fitness in the army, will find in the Lima Athletic club a spirit of keen appreciation of the clean active training that is essential to high manliness and good living.

The personnel of the organization has stamped the seal of respectability and fairness in its makeup, and it blooms forth like the birth of a new flower.

Mayor Simpson, the Lima Boxing Commission, and many other men who favor the movement have expressed themselves as anxious for the success and benefit to the community of the Lima Athletic Club.

LONGEST RELAY TO BE STAGED BY A. E. F.

Like the runner who carried the tidings at the battle of Marathon in 490 B. C., when the invading Persians were defeated by the Athenians, so will the Decoration Day relay race to be staged by the K. of C. with the A. E. F. in France show how similar messages would have been dispatched had the recent war been fought on the same ground in the earlier times.

The race, which is to be the greatest athletic event held by the A. E. F. is to be run from Chateau-Thierry, where the German tide of invasion received its severest check and turned the tide of the immense conflict, to Paris, the seat of government of the invaded country.

It will be the longest relay race in the history of the world, and will be done in three-mile laps, in which 12 teams of 30 men each, will carry the message.

The message, written by a general who took part in the actual conflict at Chateau-Thierry, will be carried to Paris to be delivered to President Wilson and General Pershing.

It will illustrate how quickly news of the terrible conflict could have been dispatched to headquarters had it been necessary to depend on human legs to convey the word.

A list of 250 picked athletes will participate, and the course of the race, thru the most tragic terrain in the world, that of the Marne valley, will be lined with hundreds of thousands of doughboys who are planning to witness the event. The K. of C. are making elaborate preparations to regale both participants and spectators and it will be a day of much interest for the boys across the pond.

Watching the Scoreboard
Thursday's hero—Al Mamaux. He didn't turn a whisker while that heavy Red bombardment was on. Babe Adams was reminiscent Thursday and shut out the Phillies for the Pirates, 5 to 0.
The Browns haven't learned yet where their place is. They shut out the Athletics by a 2 to 0 score.

The 12th inning saw the downfall of the White Sox, with their hated red-hosed rivals taking the contest 6 to 5.
The Yankees were presented with a remembrance by the Tigers in the final inning, a run winning the game being the gift.
The Cubs are getting anything but petting in New York. They lost the third straight to the Giants 6 to 2.

The Senators played dead for Cleveland, the latter winning 6 to 3.

CORRECT STYLES QUALITY WORKMANSHIP

Great popularity invariably follows the bringing out of a new style in Men's clothing—such as the WAIST SEAM SUIT. Understanding this new style we began to assemble waist-sea mmodels. Our stock is now at its best and we can truthfully say that there is no better in the city of Lima.

Men and young men will find our "Val-U-Mor" clothes remarkably well made of materials that are decidedly unusual at the two prices mentioned. There are the more conservative models and the form-fitting type that will please the young man, in an excellent variety of attractive patterns. Come in Saturday and make your selection.

MURAD THE TURKISH CIGARETTE

If you said it wasn't a Murad, I would know you were only joking—one can't mistake them—for Murads are 100% pure Turkish tobacco—the world's most famous tobacco for cigarettes.

Murads have that old-fashioned Turkish taste—and upon my word, I never bought as good a Turkish cigarette at Cairo or Constantinople.

It is true that "ordinary" cigarettes cost a trifle less.

COLLEGE RACKET WIELDERS PLAY

DELAWARE, May 16.—Wesleyan net artists will meet the Denison players Saturday at Granville. In the match played here a few weeks ago, both teams took two matches and the coming contest should be an interesting one.

Denison has won from Wittenberg, while the showing that the local players made against Ohio State is encouraging.

Dempsey In Toledo

TOLEDO.—Making a fast 12-hour automobile trip from Chicago, Jack Dempsey, challenger for the world's heavyweight ring title, his manager, Jack Kearns, and two friends, unexpectedly arrived here at 11 o'clock Thursday night.

Instead of stopping for the night at South Bend as had been planned, the Dempsey entourage kept right on coming and surprised Promoter Tex Rickard who was not looking for the boxer, until late Friday afternoon. Thursday morning the challenger and his manager motored down the Maumee Bay shore, where they will select training quarters. Just as soon as a place is picked, Jack will go to work.

Ground was broken for the arena by Tex Rickard and Frank Flounroy Thursday afternoon. Work is progressing rapidly and soon the gigantic stadium will begin to take form.

ELLER PROVES HIMSELF GREAT PITCH ARTIST

BY H. C. HAMILTON

NEW YORK.—Hod Eller, at least, is a gent of attainments.

He is a pitcher who never considers doing things by halves. His victory over Al Mamaux Thursday in the Brooklyn home enclosure only goes to prove the truth of this statement, for he maneuvered himself thru some more runless innings, after a previous brilliant performance against the Cardinals last Sunday.

Eller is the heaviest who stood the Cubs on their heads for a spell May 5 and then exploded with smoke exuding from every pore in the ninth inning. Six runs crossed the plate that day and the Bruins tied the score, only to win out a few minutes later.

Three Times a Week For Three Weeks

After the long winter months, too much rich food and too little exercise, practically everyone feels the necessity for a good Spring Tonic and Blood Purifier. The very best spring medicine you can take is the King of Tonic Laxatives—

CELERY KING

Three times a week for three weeks brew a cup of this purely vegetable laxative tea and drink it just before retiring. Gently, yet effectively, it will drive out all impurities and not only make you feel better, but look better, right away, giving you a sweet breath, clear skin and a healthy appetite.

300 S. MAIN ST. CORNER ELM

Then last Sunday, Eller pitched a no-hit, no-run matinee against the Cards. Believing in his own prowess, apparently, he tackled the Dodgers Thursday with all his skill protruding with the result that he got sweet revenge for the Cub massacre. In the 13th innings of this encounter, Al Mamaux went thru a barrage of baseballs and when the ghostly thing was over, Al's side had been wallowed, 10 to 0. The ten runs all arrived in the 13th inning and were the result of hits mainly, with a few boots thrown in.

So the west's best won the first game since they came east. The Cubs fizzled again at the Polo grounds. The Giants now are certain to run away with the long end of this series, for only one game remains to be played. Cincinnati can make it an even affair by winning Friday.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parment (Double Strength) Take this home and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parment is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.

OUTDOOR BOXING TO BOOM SPORT

Lima will probably see an outdoor boxing match before the summer is over, as the Lima Athletic Club include such a show in their plans for the season.

There will be plenty of open air boxing shows staged thruout the country this summer, as the match-makers of clubs in cities where the sport is legalized or permitted are hustling around to engage baseball parks to put on out-door entertainments.

The cities so far known where these shows will be held besides Cleveland are as follows: Philadelphia, Scranton, Pa.; Jersey City, Trenton, N. J.; Cedar Point, O., Atlantic City, Toledo, O., St. Paul, Minneapolis, Canton, O., Akron, O., Newark, N. J., Bayonne, N. J., Plainfield, N. J., Denver, Col., Pittsburg and Pennsboro, N. J.

ORDERS FOR CEMETERY BIDS SHOULD BE PLACED BY MAY 20TH IN ORDER TO INSURE PLANTING BY DECORATION DAY.

Let's reason together about Tires

GORDON TIRE

Gordon Tires are made in all sizes—Fabric and Cord for Passenger Cars and Trucks.

Gordon Pure Gum Inner Tubes often outlast the car. Try one Gordon Tube—that's all we ask.

GORDON Tires wouldn't stand as well as they do with a lot of people if they just barely made good on their guarantee of 5000 miles (6000 on smaller sizes).

Even a poor tire is liable to do that much—perhaps with an adjustment of a few hundred miles. The difference in tires is measured by their mileage in excess of that which is guaranteed.

Our ambition is to make a thousand car owners in this town believe so heartily in Gordons that 10,000 miles won't surprise them.

But the only way a man can really know a tire and have confidence in it is to put it on his car and keep track of it. For your own sake, as well as ours, we ask you to buy just one Gordon Tire. It costs no more than other good tires and less than some.

Let us register that tire—its number, date of purchase, and make of car—thus aiding you to keep an accurate record of its performance. If by chance any questions should come up about the tire, this complete record will aid both of us to be fair and reasonable.

Every process of manufacture of a Gordon Tire is certified by the man responsible for that process. We guarantee the tire to you and our employees guarantee it to us.

It is because we know every Gordon Tire from birth to old age—who made it—who sold it—and who enjoyed it—that we are able to hold it to a standard of tire quality that is expressed in remarkable mileage records.

For your own sake, won't you try just one Gordon Tire?

Short Shavings

Nowhere does patriotism flame higher than in the southern mountains. A Kentucky hillman left his sunny patch and his moonshiny private still and walked down into the lowlands to bid farewell to his lanky son, who had heard the call of his country and had enlisted and now was bound for overseas service.

the younger in his arms. "I fit four year ago in the Union; but I'm reconciled now; and I'm proud to see you wearin' the uniform of the federal government. You'll be sailin' fur furin' parts soon; and when you get there I want you to remember what you owe to yore flag and country."

"And, son, if you run into one of them there Germans don't show him no mercy. Shoot him down like he was a revenue officer!"

A Quaker had gotten himself into trouble with the authorities and the sheriff called to escort him to the lockup.

"Is your husband in?" he inquired of the good wife who came to the door.

"My husband will see thee," she replied. "Come in."

The sheriff entered, was bidden to make himself at home, and was hospitably entertained for half an hour, but no husband appeared. At last the sheriff grew impatient.

"Look here," said he, "I thought you said your husband would see me."

"He has seen thee," was the calm reply, "but he did not like thy looks and he has gone another way."

BANK ROBBERS ESCAPE WITH LOOT OF $60,000
CHICAGO — Five masked automobile bandits Thursday escaped with $30,000 in Liberty Bonds, $20,000 in certificates of indebtedness and $10,000 in cash, from the First National Bank of Dalton, Ill., 16 miles from here. The men forced W. H. Baker, assistant cashier, to open the vault, containing the money and securities. They then locked

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulified cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulified cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

Baker and a girl employe in the furnace room. A customer walked in before the bandits left and they locked him in with the employes.

Can you wash your walls?

You have often wished that you could remove spots and stains from your wall paper. Perhaps the paper was almost new. In that case the marks must remain an eye-sore, or you must go to the expense of repapering.

We can save you all such annoyances. In place of this unsanitary wall paper, we recommend that you use

DEVOE Velour Finish

It is an oil paint that gives to walls a beautiful, soft, water-color effect. If it becomes soiled, wash it with soap and water.

Besides being a thoroughly sanitary finish for your walls and ceilings, Devoe Velour Finish also offers artistic possibilities that cannot be obtained with wall paper. Also, it is more economical—lasts longer than wall paper.

We guarantee every can of Devoe we sell. Our customers tell us it gives them perfect satisfaction and that it is very easy to apply.

Be sure to ask us for the new booklet—"Harmony in the Home."
